PLAN SYSTEM OF IMPROVED ROADS

Advocates of Permanent Highways Have Course Mapped out for Extending Paved Streets.

TWO PETITIONS ALREADY IN

Commissioners Appoint Viewers For Willard Tribbey Road—Petition Calls For Cement.

Plans for extending the improved streets of Rushville city on to the Rushville township line, and for carrying them on through the townships which they will touch, thus completing a system of hard surfaced roads on the main highways of the county, are in the making and will eventually materialize, in the opinion of good roads advocates, though it will require years for the projects to be worked out.

Road building, especially when the material is of a kind that will make the improvement permanent, is a slow process because the law provides that a petition for a new road may not even be filed if there is not a surplus in the township fund. It will take years to consummate the plans of Rush county men who want to see their county come to the front in the state with an improved system of highways, but there is little doubt but that their dream will come true because very little opposition is now voiced to the expenditure of money for good roads—especially those of a permanent character. People have learned by experience that it is good business to build roads that will last.

Road men believe that the automobile coming into such general use has been responsible for the changed attitude toward road building. All automobile drivers want good roads. Those who do not own machines have seen that nothing but a road with a hard surface will stand up under the wear and tear of traffic as it is nowadays.

Petitions are already on file before the county board of commissioners to extend Main street to the Noble township line on the south and the Jackson township line on the north. The John Powers et al petition if granted, will result in a cement highway being built from the end of the paved street in North Morgan street to the Jackson township line. It is believed that there are enough good roads advocates in Jackson township to take the matter up and pave the road on through. It would then fall to the lot of Center township to take it on to the Henry county line.

Main street on the south has already been extended with a cement road running south through Circleville. The petition of John Weir and others, which is now before the commissioners, proposes that this cement highway, which was just completed last fall and opened to travel, shall be carried on to the Noble township line. Once that is done, there will be another petition to continue the improved highway on through Noble township. By that time it is expected Richland township will be ready to build it on to the Decatur county line.

Two petitions had been prepared for the extension of this highway, and it was discovered yesterday at the meeting of the commissioners that the wrong one had been filed. If it had been granted, there would have been a gap of unimproved road left. It was dismissed and the correct one filed.

The board yesterday afternoon also acted favorably on the petition of Willard Tribbey and others for a cement highway seven-eighths of a mile long, extending north from the intersection of the Carthage pike and what is known as the Brookville pike in the town of Arlington. Orlan J. Meyers and R. E. Henley of Carthage, and Frank Catt, county surveyor.

INJURIES MAY PROVE FATAL

William Stevens Hurt Internally When Load of Hay Upsets

William Stevens, living on the John Powell farm north of this city, who was injured one day last week when he fell off a load of hay, is in a serious condition, having been injured internally. He is not expected to live. The team of horses he was driving frightened at a Shetland pony in a field along the road and upset the wagon. Stevens was thrown into the ditch, and the wagon and hay fell over on him. He collar bone was broken, but it was not thought at first that he was hurt internally.

NURSE IS SENT ON SOJOURN TO ITALY

Miss Hazel Bennett, Exhausted After 8 Months Service on Front, is Relieved

SENDS HOME GERMAN HELMET

Miss Hazel Bennett, who went overseas with Base Hospital No. 32, an Indiana unit, is now taking a rest in Italy, according to word received by her friends here. The last information received from her was to the effect she would have an opportunity to see Monte Carlo. Miss Bennett was on the front eight months without a rest and when the war ended, she was exhausted and had to be relieved. It is expected that she will be sent home soon.

The former Rushville girl has sent John Wyatt son of Mr. and Mrs. Warder Wyatt, a German helmet which she took off the head of a German soldier as he dropped dead at the door of the hospital where she was on duty. There is a big hole in the top of the helmet, showing where the missile which killed the German penetrated his head. The incident happened before the war ended while Miss Bennett was on duty with an evacuation hospital. She wrote some time ago, saying that she would send the helmet.

CAPT. KIPLINGER IS TRIAL JUDGE ADVOCATE

Former Attorney One of Three For District to Try General Court Martial Cases

SENDS COPY OF PARIS PAPER

Captain John H. Kiplinger, former commander of the headquarters company of the 139th Field Artillery, who was transferred to the American army of occupation before the 38th division started home, is now on duty as one of three trial judge advocates of the army district for general court martial cases. Word to this effect has been received by friends here. Captain Kiplinger has promised to write a more extended letter detailing some of his experiences while with the American expeditionary force.

Captain Kiplinger has sent a copy of a Paris newspaper which depicts in graphic form some of the devastation wrought by the Huns. The paper gives a complete list of raids on Paris by the Germans during the war. According to this list, there were two hundred and seventy-one attacks from the air on the French capital during the war, the majority of them being made with bombing planes. Dirigibles were used in only twenty-six instances early in the war.

ADMINISTRATION BILL IS AMENDED

Measure Creating Department of Insurance Changed to Become Effective Sept. 30, 1920

DRY FIGHT STOPS IN HOUSE

Jinnett Introduces Bill Providing Attendance Officers Shall Receive $2 a Day Regularly

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Jan. 28.—The administration bill creating a department of insurance separate from the state auditor's office, was amended in the senate today when it was brought up for second reading, to make the salary of the insurance commissioner $4,000 a year instead of $6,000 and to make it effective September 30, 1920 instead of this year.

The house passed the Kimmel bill providing for abolishing the statistician and state geologist offices by a vote of 77 to 18.

The fight against dry beer was dropped in the houses of representatives today. Representative Frank Wright, author of the bill aimed to strengthen the prohibition law, said he would call a meeting of the public moral committee to make several changes in the bill. These changes will include withdrawal of the provision which prohibits the manufacture of drinks which have any alcohol and also withdrawal of the provision under which whiskey could be introduced as evidence in trying a person accused of violation of the prohibition law.

Bills introduced included: Southard—Pension employees of state in service twenty years or more and those over 60 years of age.

Backer—Appropriating $50,000 for prevention of tuberculosis among cattle and providing that when tuberculosis is found in a herd the state may have the cattle killed and reimburse the owner.

McKinley—Granting an eight hour day to women.

Grayson—Providing for a pension for mothers where the father is unable to work, including the pension supervision by the board of children's guardians in each county.

Jinnett—Providing that school attendance officers shall receive $2.00 a day regularly and $1.00 a day additional for work outside the city or town.

The senate passed the McKinley bill providing that city officers may donate money to organizations engaged in public welfare work.

JAP CLAIM BEFORE THE WAR COUNCIL

Reported England Supports Her Retention of Islands Seized From Germany

JAPAN MAY HELP BRITAIN

All Delegates Apparently Agreed That Colonies Should Revert to The Germans

(By United Press.)

Paris, Jan. 28.—Japanese claim to marshal Pacific Islands was understood to have received special attention at today's meeting of the Supreme War Council. It was reported that Great Britain supported the retention of the islands which were seized from Germany. In return for this support, it is believed that Japan may back up the claim of Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, to German colonies now held by them. All delegates were apparently agreed that colonies revert to Germany on pre-war status but the majority appeared to favor their administration by the league of nations, under a trusteeship of nations more directly interested.

Gen. Kerman and Dr. R. H. Lord, were selected as American representatives on the mission which the associated powers will send to Poland.

The Supreme War Council today was expected again to take up disposition of German colonies. The council is understood to feel that early decision on territorial question is necessary for drawing up the preliminary peace treaty, which will permit demobilization. Certain delegates are known to favor immediate settlement of several of the more pressing territorial problems, instead of waiting for these matters to be handled by the league of nations. In addition to the effect on demobilization, the delegates were influenced by the fact that certain individuals await territorial adjustment and that the situation of the affected population is serious.

Whatever action is taken it will conform with the broad principles of the league of nations. Territorial questions which may receive early consideration includes adjustment of boundary of Poland and Czechoslovakia and disposition of German colonies.

The demand by French officials regarding an alleged claim to the Saar valley has taken the form of a disposition that no claim has been presented. There has been no official enlightenment on France's position in this matter, but it was ascertained in some quarters today such French problems as will be presented at the peace conference, will provide for control of the Saar valley.

The nineteen small powers, sitting in the peace conference, at a harmonious session yesterday, gave their full support to the working organization outlined by the large powers, and selected their representatives to serve on committees, charged with consideration of many difficult problems.

This was largely due to the skilful direction of Jules Cambon, French delegate, and former ambassador at Washington, who was designated by the council of the great powers to preside over the meeting of the small powers.

For a time there was some apprehension of the sequel to the different viewpoints expressed at Saturday's conference, but the meeting of the small powers was without incident or renewal of the claims then set up for increased representation on the various committees. Belgium, Serbia, Roumania and all the other small powers had their full delegations at the meeting.

M. Cambon, in opening the session, alluded to the great part Belgium had taken in the war. He then Legler, wife of the director of real estate and loan department of the Peoples National bank at Evansville, jumped from a Vandalia train near Plainfield during the night and was killed. An immediate search was started and the body was found near the tracks at Plainfield.

SUPERSTITIOUS WILL SAYS 'I TOLD YOU SO'

Basis of Dispute Between L. B. Osborne and J. R. Ward Happened on Friday, The 13th

SOW AND PIGS ARE INVOLVED

Superstitious persons will say "I told you so" when they hear the story of the troubles of Lucien B. Osborn and John R. Ward over a sow and fourteen pigs.

It seems that it was Friday, September 13 that Mr. Osborn came into possession of the aforesaid sow and pigs, which strayed into his corn field from an adjoining farm belonging to Mr. Ward. They damaged the growing corn, Mr. Osborn alleges, and he vows he will hold them until the owner pays the damages. Mr. Ward refuses and some time ago filed suit to replevin the sow and pigs. The case eventually got into the circuit court and the jury disagreed, so that the status of the dispute is just as it was in the beginning.

Mr. Osborn insists that J. P. Stech, justice of the peace, sell the sow and pigs to pay the damage he sustained in his corn. Attorneys for Mr. Ward served verbal notice on Squire Stech today not to sell them.

NEW POLITICAL CRISIS BREWING IN GERMANY

Future Status of Workman and Soldiers Council, Only Administrative Body, The Cause

MAY ABOLISH THE SOVIETS

Berlin, Jan. 28.—A new political crisis was brewing today over the future of the workmen and soldiers council in which administrative powers have centered since the beginning of the revolution. Leaders of majority socialists and democrats, a coalition of whom is expected to dominate the new German republic, were advocating a program for abolition or at least modification of the Soviets. Meanwhile the government would be run by the present cabinet and the national assembly could establish new governmental machinery.

The Spartacans are throwing what power they still possess on the side of the workmen and soldiers council.

The majority of the German people apparently are determined that the national assembly work shall be absolute and that Soviets and present cabinet alike must bow to its will. In view of this fact it is believed that the meeting at Weimar may resolve itself into the first congress of the German republic.

ACCEPTS REPORT

SAYS HE SAVES MEN SO THEY MAY SERVE

Evangelist A. P. Renn Declares God Does Not Save Men to Keep Them Out of Hell

REVIVAL AT BAPTIST CHURCH

God Alone Can Save World, But God Can't Save the World Alone, Evangelist Asserts

Gad saves men to serve, not to keep them out of hell or to let them spend eternity in Heaven, the Rev. A. P. Renn declared at the revival service at the First Baptist church last night. It is the Christian's duty to bear witness, he said.

The evangelistic meetings began at this church Sunday and it is reported that the interest is increasing each night. The Rev. Mr. Renn is assisted by a singing evangelist, Mr. Bockemeyer.

The evangelist used for his subject last night, "Witnessing for Christ," based on the text, the words of which formed the climax to Judah's plea for Benjamin, "For how shall I go back to my father and the lad be not with me?"

"Just as Judah was responsible for the safe return of Benjamin, we are responsible for the safe return of our friends to our heavenly father," declared the Rev. Mr. Renn. "God will hold us responsible for not being faithful in witnessing, that a lost world might be won to Him.

What does God save men for? Not simply to keep them out of hell, neither to let them spend eternity in heaven. He saves people that they might serve Him. A knife is used for cutting. A pencil is used for writing. A watch is used for telling time. Each of these have one function to perform. So with a Christian, saved for one thing, saved to serve, to witness. God alone can save the world, but God cannot save the world alone.

"A great number of people in the world want Christ but church members have been slow in taking the message to them. Do you know the world is dying for a little bit of love? Everywhere you hear them sighing for a little bit of love—for the love that rights a wrong, fills each heart with hope and song. They have waited so long for a little bit of love.

"God has done all He can to win the world back to Himself. He gave His Son, the best He had. The Son gave His life, the best He had. The Holy Spirit has done and is doing all that can be done. He is witnessing and convicting men and women and giving Christians power to witness. So if the world is lost God is not to blame. In most cases where people are lost some one has been unfaithful in witnessing.

SOCIETY OPPOSES SPANKING CHILDREN

Spare the Rod and Spoil the Child
Biblical Quotation Cannot be Found in Bible

NO DEFENSE FOR WHIPPING

Palo Alto, Cal., Jan. 28.—Don't spank the kiddies and then blame it on the Bible.

This is the warning being sent broadcast by the American Humane Education society here. The society is opposed to spanking, and points out that the alleged biblical authority so often quoted, "Spare the rod and spoil the child," cannot be found in any Bible. Instead, the maxim that has brought so many blue days to little folk originated in a poem by Samuel Butler in 1663, the Humane society says.

Says the society's letter to parents:

"Slapping, spanking or whipping children cannot be defended. They have been universal. They are now common. They are seldom discussed. Possibly shame prevents parents from talking about this important subject. It is time the practice was discussed openly.

"Children cannot defend themselves. Teachers and parents who have a high standard of conduct, should speak and write in strong terms condemning the corporal punishment of children."

FEW BILLS INTRODUCED IN PRESENT SESSION

Average Run of Measures in Two Houses During Regular Session is 500 Each

15 PERCENT BECOME LAW

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 28.—Indications are that there will probably be fewer bills introduced in the present session of the legislature than at any previous session with the exception of the special session in 1908 when there were but twenty-six bills introduced in the house and only sixteen in the senate.

The average run of bills introduced in the two houses during a regular session is about 500 each, and only twice since 1899 have there been less than 1,000 bills introduced in the two houses combined, during the sixty-one day period. Of the total number of bills introduced it is seldom that more than about 15 per cent of them become laws.

There were more bills introduced at the session of 1915 which was overwhelmingly democratic, than at any other session. The total at that session was 1,520. Three hundred and sixty of these were enacted into laws. Of the forty-two bills introduced in the session of 1908 all were enacted into laws, making the record for the percentage of bills passed at any session. It was at the special session of 1908 that the local option law was passed.

paid a tribute to the work of Serbia, Roumania, Greece and the others. This dissipated any lingering shadows of disagreement, and the meeting proceeded with entire harmony.

In the meantime the council of the great powers held two sessions during the day, resulting in the formation of two new commissions, to deal with financial subjects and the question of private and maritime laws.

The council also proceeded to hearings on the disposition of the conquered German colonies in the Pacific and the far east, a final conclusion not being reached. The conference is giving evidence of real progress since the committees were named, and most of these bodies have begun their work.

President Wilson, who is chairman of the committee of the league of nations, joined his colleague, E. M. House, also a member of that committee, during the noon recess of the council. Later in the day Lord Robert Cecil, British member of the committee, joined him in a further consideration of the questions which the President and Mr. House had examined.

The labor commission also began to get under way. President Wilson met Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor; James Duncan, John R. Alpine, and other members of the American Labor delegation, for a brief exchange of greetings and later Mr. Gompers and Edward N. Hurley, who are the American members of the labor commission, held their first conference of the work ahead.

Henry White, American delegate on the waterways commission, also established relations with his colleagues of that body.

RESTRICTIONS REMOVED

Washington, Jan. 28.—Restrictions of the manufacture of near beer have been removed. The food administration announced today it had been advised that President Wilson January 23 signed a proclamation lifting the ban. The date on which it will become effective will depend on the length of time the document is in transit from France.

PLATE GLASS BILL WILL AID MERCHANTS

Will Save Thousands of Dollars Which Are Paid to Plate Glass Insurance Companies

RATES EXTREMELY HIGH

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 28.—Senator A. H. Beardsley, of Elkhart, today stated that through the enactment of a bill which he has introduced providing for the establishment of mutual plate glass insurance companies that merchants in small towns in Indiana will be able to save many thousands of dollars annually which are now being paid out to plate glass insurance companies for protection against loss due to windows being broken.

"The plate glass insurance rates in Indiana are extremely high at present," said Senator Beardsley, "and there appears to be a great need for the organization of mutual insurance companies which may protect its members against loss from having their windows and show cases broken. The cause for the high rate on plate glass in this state has not been explained satisfactorily to many policy holders and I believe that it is only just that the legislature grant the merchants of Indiana the authority to organize mutual plate glass insurance companies if they desire to do so. Should it prove that the present rate is lower than the cost of a mutual company would be the merchants, will of their own accord return to the old line companies for protection against these losses."

FIGHT FOR DEMOBILIZATION

London, Jan. 28.—The industrial war which has broken out in Great Britain and Ireland is the beginning of a fight in the interest of demobilization of soldiers, various officials declared today. They denied that the strike is connected with Bolshevism. The strike situation was unchanged today. Nearly 200,000 men were out in various parts of the country.

All of the decorations which were put up for the dance in the court house, which was the closing event of the day of entertainment a week ago today, had been removed today and Sam Buckner, custodian, returned all flags which were loaned. The committee wishes to thank all people who allowed their flags to be used.

The legislative visiting committee of the state has recommended to the legislature, in session in Indianapolis, that regular appropriations of $137,600 and specific appropriations of $7,450 be made for the Soldiers and Sailors Orphans home, northeast of Carthage, in this county. The recommendations are for the same amount as have been appropriated in past years.

Many British Women Will Keep War Jobs.

(By United Press.)

London, Dec. 14. (By Mail.)—Wanted: Work for 500,000 women.

The number of women who will be thrown out of work by the ending of the war is not so great as is imagined. About one and a half million extra women have been employed in the United Kingdom since July, 1914 but the number of killed and disabled men amounts to about one million. Therefore there remain 500,000 women workers who will be displaced.

Their displacement will come gradually and they will not be thrown on the labor market at once, for a of the increase in women's labor consists of dilutees. Until the men come back they will remain at their jobs.

In the meantime many new spheres have sprung up for women. They will continue making tools and machinery, they will be employed in subsidiary ship-building industries, they will do their share in the chemical trades; and also, there are two quite new branches of work open to women of the United Kingdom—the manufacture of pianos and toys, both of which industries are being wrested from the hands of the Hun.

Steel Worker Gets Amazing Relief In Severe Case of Inflammatory Rheumatism

Advices 20th Century Liniment in A II Cases of Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Etc.

Read what he says:

"I am a steel worker employed by the Seranton Bolt and Nut Works. Those who know the occupation of Puddling Iron will fully realize the danger of catching cold. With me a slight cold developed into inflammatory rheumatism and for three months I could not move hand or foot. Doctors could give me no relief and for five days before using 20th Century Liniment I neither ate nor slept. It was only after much persuasion that I allowed a friend of mine to try your liniment. Five minutes after 20th Century Liniment was applied I felt the first relief from pain in three months, and that very night I slept from 10:30 to 6:30 a. m., and awoke without pain. I was up and around, and the end of the second week was back at work. If anyone feels doubtful as to the merits of 20th Century Liniment and will write me, I will dispel any doubts they may have.—Thos. A. Caveney, 920 Capouse Ave., Seranton, Pa."

20TH CENTURY LINIMENT has brought relief to thousands of sufferers. It draws all the painful soreness and swelling from Rheumatic joints and does it so surely and speedily, it seems almost like magic. If you don't find quick relief, take the bottle back to your druggist and get your money back. What this truly wonderful liniment has done for others, it can do for you also.

All druggists can supply you.—(Adv.)

NEWS OF JOBS TO SOLDIERS

Arrangements Being Perfected to Give First Hand Information

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States civil service commission is perfecting arrangements whereby men about to be discharged from the service may receive first-hand information of opportunities for employment under the civil service.

The commission is appointing representatives at all establishments where enlisted men are assembled in considerable numbers. They will be prepared to inform the men fully concerning openings and to assist them, if necessary, in preparing their applications. Educational directors of welfare organizations already operating at camps and cantonments will direct the work.

Suppressing the Bolshevik.

It goes without saying that the American people will not sanction any recognition of the red-handed Bolshevik government in Russia nor any direct dealings with its cut-throat leaders. It is hardly conceivable that our government, any more than the French or British government, has any such thing in view. Pres. Wilson who did not recognize Huerta, can hardly recognize Lenin and Trotsky.

The attempt to get all the Russian factions together for a peace confab of their own is interpreted by many observers as a clever scheme to solve the Russian problem by putting the Bolshevik in a hole. If they can be induced to send representatives to an island in the Sea of Marmora to meet the representatives of the rest of Russia, their delegation will be so outnumbered and outvoted and outtalked that the delegates will probably return sadder and wiser. And if, as the plan contemplates, everybody will stop fighting while the convention is being

Honesty that has never been sorely tested really doesn't count.

No one ever does anything big unless he does it exactly as he pleases.

Those who set traps and lie in wait for love always catch something else.

The things that cannot be learned out of books are the things that put you "next."

Most blunders happen because we do our thinking after the event instead of before.

It is a mighty fine thing in business to forget the other fellow and center upon yourself.

Hez Heck says "Men who keep their eyes off the clock never have to ask the boss for a raise."

held, it may be the end of militant Bolshevism. With hostilities once suspended, their fighting forces are likely to become disorganized.

The Bolshevik army has been unfortunate of late, anyhow. The Estonians have licked it. The Poles have licked it. Nearly everybody seems able to lick it. Its numbers are greatly reduced. With judicious encouragement from the Allies it might really melt away, leaving Lenin and Trotsky stranded and opening the way for the organization of a republican federation in Russia under allied protection.

"Internationalizing" Labor.

It was somewhat surprising, and not at all displeasing, to learn that the peace conference at Paris gave a session to the discussion of international labor. It appears that the conference wants to establish a commission to deal with world-labor questions. There may be an international conference, representing both labor and capital, called soon to formulate a general program. Ultimately, it is suggested, there may be a permanent labor commission responsible to the League of Nations.

There would be a broad field for such an institution. It could deal better than any existing agency with such a problem as the pay and working conditions of sailors, straightening out, for example, the inequalities now existing between American standards and those of other nations. It would not interfere, of course, in the internal affairs of any country. It could doubtless do much to promote good relations everywhere between capital and labor, disseminating useful information and bringing uniformity into industrial standards in many lands.

Young, handsome, fat, smirking Manuel really seems to think he's going to get his king job back in Portugal. But we'll bet on Portugal.

Maybe if they put brass foot-rails in the postoffices, generous citizens would treat each other to thrift stamps.

All the hard cider in Ithaca, N. Y., has been confiscated as "liquor," and the last ray of hope dies in many a temperate community.

Anyhow, if Ireland gets away with her revolution now it can't be said that Germany had anything to do with it.

The peace conference surely ought to impose on indemnity on Spain for all this influenza.

This may be a false peace. Better not demobilize the winter underwear just yet.

Then, too, a dry nation can buy more thrift stamps.

Amusements

Melodrama at Mystic

A star which has recently arisen in the film firmament shows exceptional lustre. This star is Miss Madeline Travers who will be shown at the Mystic theatre tonight in a new William Fox photoplay called "The Danger Zone."

Miss Travers is a tall beautiful woman and her work in "The Danger Zone" is exceedingly clever. The story is melodramatic and demands strong emotional acting to put it over with a discriminating audience. Miss Travers has several big scenes and carries each of them with a power that holds the close interest and sympathy of her audience in a vise-like grip.

Mutt and Jeff will also be shown in "An Ace and a Joker."

A Patriotic Picture

Carrying a patriotic message to men and women citizens of the country, "Come on In," an excellent John Emerson, Anita Loss production which is the vehicle which introduces Shirley Mason and Ernest Truex to Paramount audiences, will be shown at the Princess theatre tonight. Aside from the loftiness of the theme, "Come on In" is essentially a dramatic photoplay which will hold the interest of the most blasé theatre-goer.

During the filming of the picture at Camp Dix, Mr. Truex wore the uniform of a lieutenant and whenever he went he was saluted by the troops. When he was passing a guard house, a dozen soldiers saluted and the clever little actor who had never spent a hour in a training camp, was at a loss as to know what to do. He finally found Mr. Emerson and Miss Loss.

"What shall I do?" he inquired anxiously. "I hope they don't take me for President Wilson or King George."

The little comedian was assured that they recognized in him an officer whose uniform they saluted rather than the man himself, and this explanation was perfectly satisfactory. In "Come on In" Mr. Truex plays the part of a sergeant who finally becomes a lieutenant and he aids Emmy Little, the character played by Shirley Mason, in bringing several Hun spies to book.

Hick Manhattan will be shown as an extra. Thursday and Friday Anita Stewart will be seen in "Virtuous Wives."

HEARING OF WIDE INTEREST LOCALLY

Effort to Prevent Burleson Phone Rates From Becoming Effective in State

INJUNCTION HEARING TODAY

Action on Theory Postmaster General Has No Authority to Increase State Rates

The hearing before Judge A. B. Anderson in federal court today on the petition of the state public service commission for a permanent injunction to prevent the Burleson long distance telephone rates from going into effect, is of wide interest in every section of the country. All telephone users of Rush county are concerned because the new rates, which the postmaster general ordered to go into effect a week ago today, would affect every person who talks over long distance lines, whether to a point within or without the state.

The new rates would complicate the long distance telephone business considerably. In some instances it was pointed out before the temporary restraining order was granted, long distance calls would be impossible, under the regulations as they were interpreted.

The details of the Indiana case asking for a permanent injunction restraining the telephone companies from charging the Federal department rates in the state were reviewed at a conference of the representatives of the various states by E. L. Lewis, chairman of the Indiana commission and the Indiana attorneys in Indianapolis yesterday. Experiences these states have had in obtaining temporary injunctions in state courts were also explained.

The action of the Indiana commission in fighting the new tolls is based on the theory that the resolution of congress authorizing the federal department to take over the wire systems of the company as a war measure, did not give the postmaster general the right to impose intrastate schedules in excess of the rates fixed by law in Indiana.

Charles M. Bracelen, solicitor for the Postoffice Department represented the federal department in the injunction proceedings, L. Ert Slack, district attorney, was requested to appear to assist Mr. Bracelen.

Those attending the conference yesterday were John G. Price, attorney general of Ohio; Clarence A. Davis, attorney general of Nebraska; Clifford L. Hilton, attorney general of Minnesota; James E. Markham, assistant attorney general of Minnesota; Thomas G. Bailey, deputy attorney general of Michigan; Thomas E. Dempcy, chairman of the Illinois Utilities Commission; M. B. Olbrich, deputy attorney general of Wisconsin; Fred W. Putnam, member of the Minnesota Railroad and Warehouse Commission; A. Z. Patterson, counsel for the Missouri Public Service Commission; F. S. Jackson, counsel for the Kansas Public Service Commission; Paul Haynes, Charles A. Edwards and E. I. Lewis of the Indiana commission and Attorney General Stansbury and his associates.

Before adjourning yesterday afternoon the board rescinded its action of earlier in the day in advertising for bids March 3 for the construction of the Fred McManus et al highway on the Center-Jackson township line and the Chester Cross et al highway in Center township. Both were for macadam roads. It is understood the commissioners decided not to advertise for bids until changes could be made in the specifications, which call for a bituminous binder. It is said this has not been found successful in Rush county.

Herschel Writes Poem About Former Rush County Pacer

William Herschel of the Indianapolis News has written a poem about Bay Sally, a pacer owned and raced by the late James Wilson, who was famous as a fast horse breeder and trainer here thirty years ago. Many older people of the county will recall Bay Sally, because she could do a mile in 2:18, which was fast for her time. The poem is as follows:

You don't know old Jim? Well, I'm sorry;
You've missed a good bet, let me say,
For Jim, with his dear old Bay Sally,
Had Ben Hur's nags tied to a dray.
And all of the chargers of Caesar,
And all Pharaoh's horses as well,
Don't start when old Jim mounts the sulky
And waits for the tap of the bell.

Bay Sally—She's dead, lo, these seasons—
But down in the heart of old Jim
She still sweeps the track like a whirlwind
And makes a great winning for him.

There's old Copper Bottom, the sturdy;
There's Silas and Granger, a pair
That kept Sleepy George on his mettle
To hold the pole safe from Jim's mare.

They met first in Boston, where Sleepy
Beat Bay Sally out by a nose,
Then into the west they came fighting—
The five of them up on their toes.

The test came at last out in Dayton,
Bay Sally and Sleepy were tied,
And that's where, on Memory's

racetrack,
Old Jim still drives, Sally, his pride.

They're ready! Old Jim mounts the sulky,
The table before him's the track;
His fingers—he plays they're the horses!—
They "check in" to start and turn back;

Turn back for a brief bit of warming
All horses warm up at the start;
It gives them the thrill for the going
And fires them in body and heart.

They're off! Old Jim's fingers go flying!
Now Sleepy is leading! the wretch!

They're round to the half! The three-quarters;
Bay Sally moves up in the stretch!
They're head to head! Look! A big horsefly
Has anchored on Bay Sally's nose!

They're under the wire! She wins by a length!
By a length of the horsefly's toes!

CAMEL LOSING POSITION

Shepherds on the Hills Still Tend
Their Flocks But This Condition Will be Changed

Jerusalem, Jan. 1. (By Mail).—
The life of two periods, distant by
many centuries, seems to flow along
the roads that lead to this ancient
city.

The camel, though he has done
great things for the British forces,
is losing his position as the main
means of transport, and the natives
driving their camels carrying huge
packs of eastern merchandise, are passed by the big engines of the ever-growing British broadgauge, railway, at which the country people
stare with openmouthed astonishment. Then along will come an Assyrian or an Arab on his donkey or mule, his wife walking behind and
carrying a great pack on her head.
In this way they transport much stuff for many miles. Now they are smothered in dust from the great quantity of motor transport on the roads.

The five barley loaves and small fishes still have to feed a good many
people in this country and women
may still be seen grinding their scanty cup of corn between stones, but now with the introduction of good
seed the country already is showing signs of vast improvement. Cotton
is still made up into rough material
in a primitive method on a kind of
bow. With the new opportunities
now opening up the old spinner is likely to be looking for another job.

Already in quite small towns you
will see the name of well known London firms. This has aroused the local shops to a kind of competition and

all kinds of important signs over
small shops, with hardly anything
to sell, announce: "The London
Stores, Stationary and Other Provisions," "The Uptodate Hosiery and
Dry Goods store," "The Manchester House," and many similar. It is doubtful if five percent of the prospective customers can read the signs.

Shepherds on the hills still tend
their flocks, dressed in camel hair,
and nightly fold them and light their
camp fires to keep off the prowling
jackals and hyenas. But in the future much of this rich land, now
practically barren, is likely to receive the attention of the steam
tractor.

Altogether, with the present
means of transportation by rail, the
great improvement in the water supply and the rapid introduction of European methods and customs, it
may be hoped a year or two of peace
will change this country into a real
"land of milk and honey."

WHY DOUGHBODY WEPT.

(By United Press.)

Coblentz, Jan. 2. (By Mail.)—There were tears in the eyes of the soldier. Such tears are rare, so when the Y. M. C. A. canteen worker, a young woman, saw the doughboy weeping her sympathy went out of him. She wondered what tragedy had broken down a strong man's natural self-control. He wasn't making a sound, just dropping silent tears. Could it be because the war had ended without his seeing fighting?

"Has your buddy—died?" timidly suggested the Y. M. C. A. worker. She had seen more than one man shed tears for his buddy who wouldn't have done it for himself.

"Now," said the Yank, rather crossly. "He's all right. He'll be along yowling for his 'supper in a minute'. He lifted his handkerchief to his eyes again.

"Maybe you're just plain homesick?" asked the Y. M. C. A. woman, after a moment's hesitation. She hated to leave him in such a obvious trouble.

"No I ain't," he contradicted. "Well, if there's nothing I can do."

"There's nothing anyone can do for me, lady," he said. "I'm in trouble, all right, but I guess I'll get over it. You see, we're havin' onions for supper tonight and I'm doing' K. P."

Monoplane Altitude Record.

Washington, January, 27.—A new record for altitude in a monoplane has been made by Major R. W. Schroeder, holder of the American altitude record. The war department received a telegram from the commandant at McCook field, Dayton, O., that Major Schroeder, with two passengers in a Loening monoplane, climbed to a height of 19,500 feet in thirty-one minutes. With him were Lieutenant George V. Elsy and K. A. Craig, a mechanic. The previous record for a machine of this type was said to be about 16,000 feet. The plane was built by Grover C. Loening, of Long Island, N. Y., and was driven by an eight-cylinder engine. It has developed a speed of 145 miles an hour.

WORD RECEIVED FROM CAPTAIN PERRY ONEAL

Now in Charge of a Company of German Prisoners Who are Operating a Stonequarry

VISITS FRONT MANY TIMES

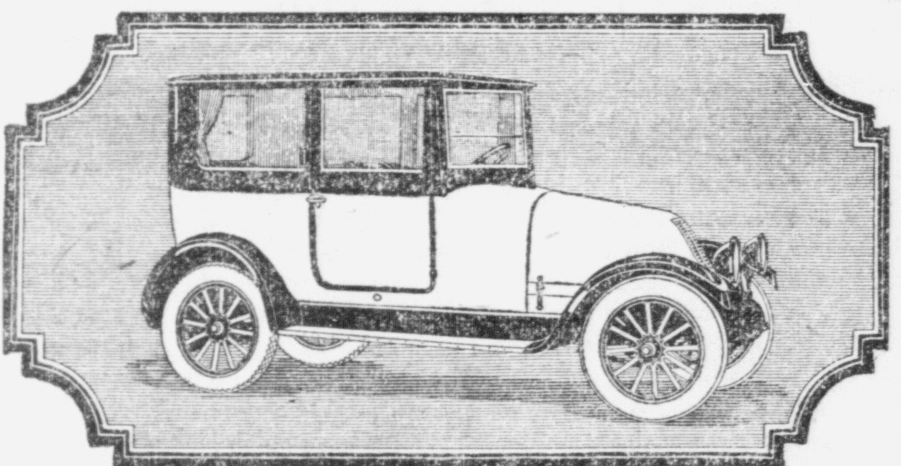

Word has just been received by Mrs. Lien Oneal from her son, Captain Perry Oneal who is now in France. Captain Oneal was at Belrupt, Verdun, at the time this letter was written. He was in charge of a company of German prisoners who were working in a stone quarry. In speaking of his work he writes in part as follows:

"When we are not so busy one of our slips off on a horse and explores the battle fields while the other runs the quarry. The other day we went over 'No Man's Land' and every foot of it was shot up, all trees had been torn down by shell fire, and we went through places where villages once stood but now there is nothing but a few rocks sticking out of the ground. We went through some forts that the Germans had been driven out of and the ground around there was nothing but a mass of shell holes. The ground was covered with implements of war, either German, American or French which had been left there.

"The city of Verdun is not in a very good condition, there is hardly a house that has not been hit by shell fire. About all there is left of some buildings is a part of a wall standing here and there."

He stated that he had always wanted to see the front and as he did not get to see it during war he was going to take a good look at it now that he had the chance. He is in good health and expects to be home in a few months.

The Red Cross Christmas Roll call had an answer that echoed around the world—from Stockholm to Valdivostok, from Buenos Aires, to Cairo.

The Franklin Sedan

Everything about the Franklin Sedan is aimed to enlarge its owner's sphere of usefulness, by eliminating waste all along the line—in time, physical energy, natural resources. In other words, the sedan conforms strictly to the need of the times. It is the ideal year-round car for the American people. The lightness and flexibility of the car allow the tires to roll lightly over the road, without severe pounding. So seldom, in fact, are Franklin owners called upon to change tires that it is more the exception than the rule for spare tires to be carried, except when natural wear makes liable a replacement.

NECESSITY

Is The Mother Of Invention

The only really new principles in the spreader building in the last fifteen years were introduced by the Litchfield Mfg. Co., and are found on RUSHVILLE SPECIAL Spreaders. Everyone of them is of commanding importance.

First among these is the conveyor which can't clog or slip under a load. Look at the cut above and see the swinging sections. Any material leaking through from the load can't lodge, but drops to the ground. You can't find another one like it.

If you could look into the box you would see that the rear edge of every slat is raised just above the one preceding it, forming a traction cleat making it impossible for the conveyor to move back with taking the load with it, thus giving it a FORCE-FEED. This overcomes every objection to the endless apron and knocks into "SMITHEREENS" the arguments of the advocates of return aprons with attendant reverse gears, traps and triggers.

FIFTEEN YEARS FROM NOW after Litchfield's patents expire all other kinds of conveyors will be a thing of the past. What other spreaders will be in fifteen years from now the RUSHVILLE SPECIAL Spreader is today.

FIFTEEN YEARS FROM NOW all spreaders will be using the BULL DOG cylinder and NO CHOKE BOX—but we'll tell you about them later. Don't wait for us to tell you but come in and see the machine yourself. There are a whole lot of things about the RUSHVILLE SPECIAL Spreader, that we cannot explain in print—we have to show you. IT'S GUARANTEED FOR FIVE YEARS!

SHALL SEE CHRIST IN ALL HIS GLORY

Children of God Shall be Greeted by
Wondrous Vision, Dr. J. S.
Hill Points Out

REVIVAL SERVICES CONTINUE

Short Prayer Service Will be Held
This Evening at 7 Preceding
Regular Meeting

Dr. J. S. Hill of Richmond, who is conducting evangelistic services at the First United Presbyterian church, spoke last night from the text, "Beloved now we are the sons of God, and it does not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when He shall appear, we shall be like Him, and we shall see Him as He is." The text was taken from First John 3:1 and two.

A prayer service at seven o'clock in the Sabbath school room immediately preceding the regular meeting, was announced for tonight. In the sermon last night Dr. Hill spoke in part as follows:

"Mr. Moody said one time that he would not preach on the text, John 3:16, because the text was so grand and so great in its meaning, that he would only mar it by trying to preach about it. The same might be said of this text. Nevertheless there are so many things that are comforting and assuring on the outer edge of its meaning, that we may take them and study them with profit. In this text the apostle opens up a field for reverent thought. It is an irrepressible glad cry from the heart of the beloved disciple. It is full of cheer and comfort to his friends and followers in all the churches. Three things are presented in the text. First what we are, second what we shall be, and third what we shall see.

"We are the sons of God. God is our Father. This passage of Scripture does not carry out the idea of evolution, John, evidently would not have made a good disciple of Darwin or Huxley. John makes the declaration in the chapter of his gospel that we who believe in Jesus Christ are born of God—not simply created by His Almighty hand, but we are born in his likeness. There is something of the divine in us. Jesus taught his disciples to pray, 'Say ye, Our Father which art in heaven.' The world may pass away, and the heavens roll together as a scroll, but as God's children we shall be kept in the midst of the wreck of worlds.

"John says it doth not yet appear what we shall be, but that we shall be. Without intending to do so John teaches the immortality of the soul. If we are sons of God we must be immortal. God hath immortality in Himself.

"The stars shine over the earth, The stars shine over the sea, The stars look up to the mighty God, The stars look down upon me. The stars shall shine for a million years, For a million years and a day, But God and I shall live and love, When the stars have passed away."

"John says that we shall see Christ. Not as Moses saw Him, not in the garments of a peasant, but we shall see him in all His glory. We shall see Him as He is. A wondrous vision awaits the children of God, in the day when God shall receive His people home. We will want millions of years to study that wonderful face, and to see the Saviour of men. Here, we think that when we reach the other side we will look for our friends first of all. But John tells us that we shall see Jesus Christ as He is. Humanly speaking it will take us ages and ages to see Him and know Him as He is. Christ said to His disciples, 'In My Father's house are many mansions.' 'Eye hath not seen nor ear heard neither has entered into the heart of man the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him.' To accept Christ is to come into the Father's house. To become a Christian is to return home. When the prodigal son was in the far country he said, I will arise and go to my father. And he arose and went. And when he was yet a great way off the father saw him, and ran to meet him. There was great rejoicing that night in the father's home. Let us come home tonight."

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole. Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of out-of-date mustard plasters, and will not blister. Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

FRENCH GIRLS' THANKS IS FROM THEIR HEARTS

(By United Press.)

Paris, Dec. 16. (By Mail.)—A big Y. M. C. A. truck was floundering through the mud of a country road in France. Heavily loaded with wood, the vehicle was barely able to navigate through the morass but it slowed down still more to avoid hitting some cattle grazing beside the way. Three little girls, whose average age probably was 12 years, were tending the few bony cows. As the truck lumbered past, one of the girls handed the Red Triangle secretary a small package. The Y. M. C. A. man and the 3 soldiers of the wood detail waved adieu to their small friends and went on.

Opening the package, the secretary found some nuts and a letter the whole evidently carefully prepared to be given to the first Americans the children encountered. Here is a translation of the letter.

"Dear American Soldiers: By this letter we wish to thank you for the patriotism you have shown in coming to defend the soil of France, and leaving your wives, your children, and your parents. It is thanks to you soldiers of America that France is not boche. We thank you greatly dear soldiers of America; the children of France will not forget you."

"YOND, NAIT, HENRIETTE".
Next day, Leon L. Rice, the Y. M. C. A. worker who had received the packet, went back over the same road, hoping to find the girls and tell them how much he appreciated their sentiment and the nuts. But he never has been able to get a trace of them. They evidently had no particular recipient in mind when they wrote the touching little letter, but simply took this means of thanking any Americans in uniform they might meet."

CHANGES MADE AT TWO RUSHVILLE FACTORIES

Walter Pearce Goes to Innis-Pearce Company and Roy Waggener to The Park

C. W. TALGES HAS RETIRED

Several changes have been made in the management of the Park and Innis-Pearce furniture companies, to take effect the first of next month.

Walter Pearce, who has been managing the Park, will become manager of the Innis-Pearce factory, and will be associated with Manly Pearce, who for the last few years has been a resident of Los Angeles, California, but still retained his interests here. C. W. Talges, who came here several months ago to take charge of the Innis-Pearce factory when Manly Pearce bought out R. L. Innis' interest, severed his connections with the company a week ago today. Roy Waggener, who has been running Case's planing mill, will take Mr. Pearce's place at the Park factory, though he will still be identified with the planing mill. Charles Sherman, who was recently discharged from the service, has been re-employed at the mill.

Manly Pearce will remain here for the present, at least until a number of repairs are made at the Innis-Pearce factory. Among other things a new boiler is to be installed and two new trucks started at the factory.

GRAND JURY PROBE STARTS

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 28.—The federal grand jury Monday began an extensive investigation of reported federal law violations in the state. United States District Attorney L. Ert Slack declared that he would present about 500 cases to the jury. Liquor law violations form the bulk of the cases. Lake county will furnish a large number of the defendants. Indianapolis, Terre Haute, Muncie and Ft. Wayne will also have a large quota.

GOODBY, WOMEN'S TROUBLES

The tortures and discomforts of weak, lame and aching back, swollen feet and limbs, weakness, dizziness, nausea, as a rule have their origin in kidney trouble, not "female complaints." These general symptoms of kidney and bladder disease are well known—so is the remedy.

Next time you feel a twinge of pain in the back or are troubled with headache, indigestion, insomnia, irritation in the bladder or pain in the loins and lower abdomen, you will find quick and sure relief in GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. This old and tried remedy for kidney trouble and allied derangements has stood the test for hundreds of years. It does the work. Pains and troubles vanish and new life and health will come as you continue their use. When completely restored to your usual vigor, continue taking a capsule or two each day.

GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are imported from the laboratories at Haarlem, Holland. Do not accept a substitute. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

DAN CUPID TO SUFFER IF BILLS BECOME LAW

Sentiment in Legislature Preventing Hasty Marriages Being Worked up Among Legislators.

MARRIAGE SUNDAY MARCH 2.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 28.—Dan Cupid will suffer many hard knocks if all the bills proposed to limit his activities are enacted into laws by the present session of the legislature. Sentiment in favor of legislation preventing hasty marriages is being worked up among the legislators.

One measure would force a five day waiting period between the time the license is procured and when the ceremony is performed. This would wipe out the marriage mills at Crown Point and Jeffersonville where couples from many states now rush to be married.

The Gary Social Welfare association has started a campaign to have March 2 observed throughout the state as "Marriage Sunday", all preachers taking the subject of hasty marriages as the theme for their sermons.

Another bill which is before the house would prohibit divorced persons from re-marrying within two years after the divorce is granted.

The Indiana Civic league is conducting a campaign to have the legislature pass a eugenic bill which would provide for every person who intends to be married, undergoing a physical examination before the license can be granted.

Another bill proposed but not introduced would force ten days publicity of the fact that a couple wished to be married before a license is granted.

YOU CAN NOW EAT YOUR FAVORITE FOOD WITHOUT ANY FEAR

Kramer Says: Eatonic Rids Weak Stomachs of Acids, Gas, Heartburn, Pain and All Distress

What miserable feelings are caused by an upset stomach! That dull, heavy, "bloated" sensation that follows a full meal, robs good living of half its pleasures. Is there any way out for you martyrs to stomach weakness?

Yes! H. L. Kramer, the man who originated Cascarets, has found a sure, quick relief for indigestion, dyspepsia, "sour stomach," heartburn, formation of painful gases, "bloating," etc., etc.

He calls this great stomach relief EATONIC, and it certainly is making a wonderful record. Countless thousands of people who formerly approached their meals with dread, now eat their fill of their favorite foods without fear of the after-effects.

Mr. Kramer says: "My EATONIC tablets are the scientific solution of the age-old problem of indigestion and all forms of stomach misery."

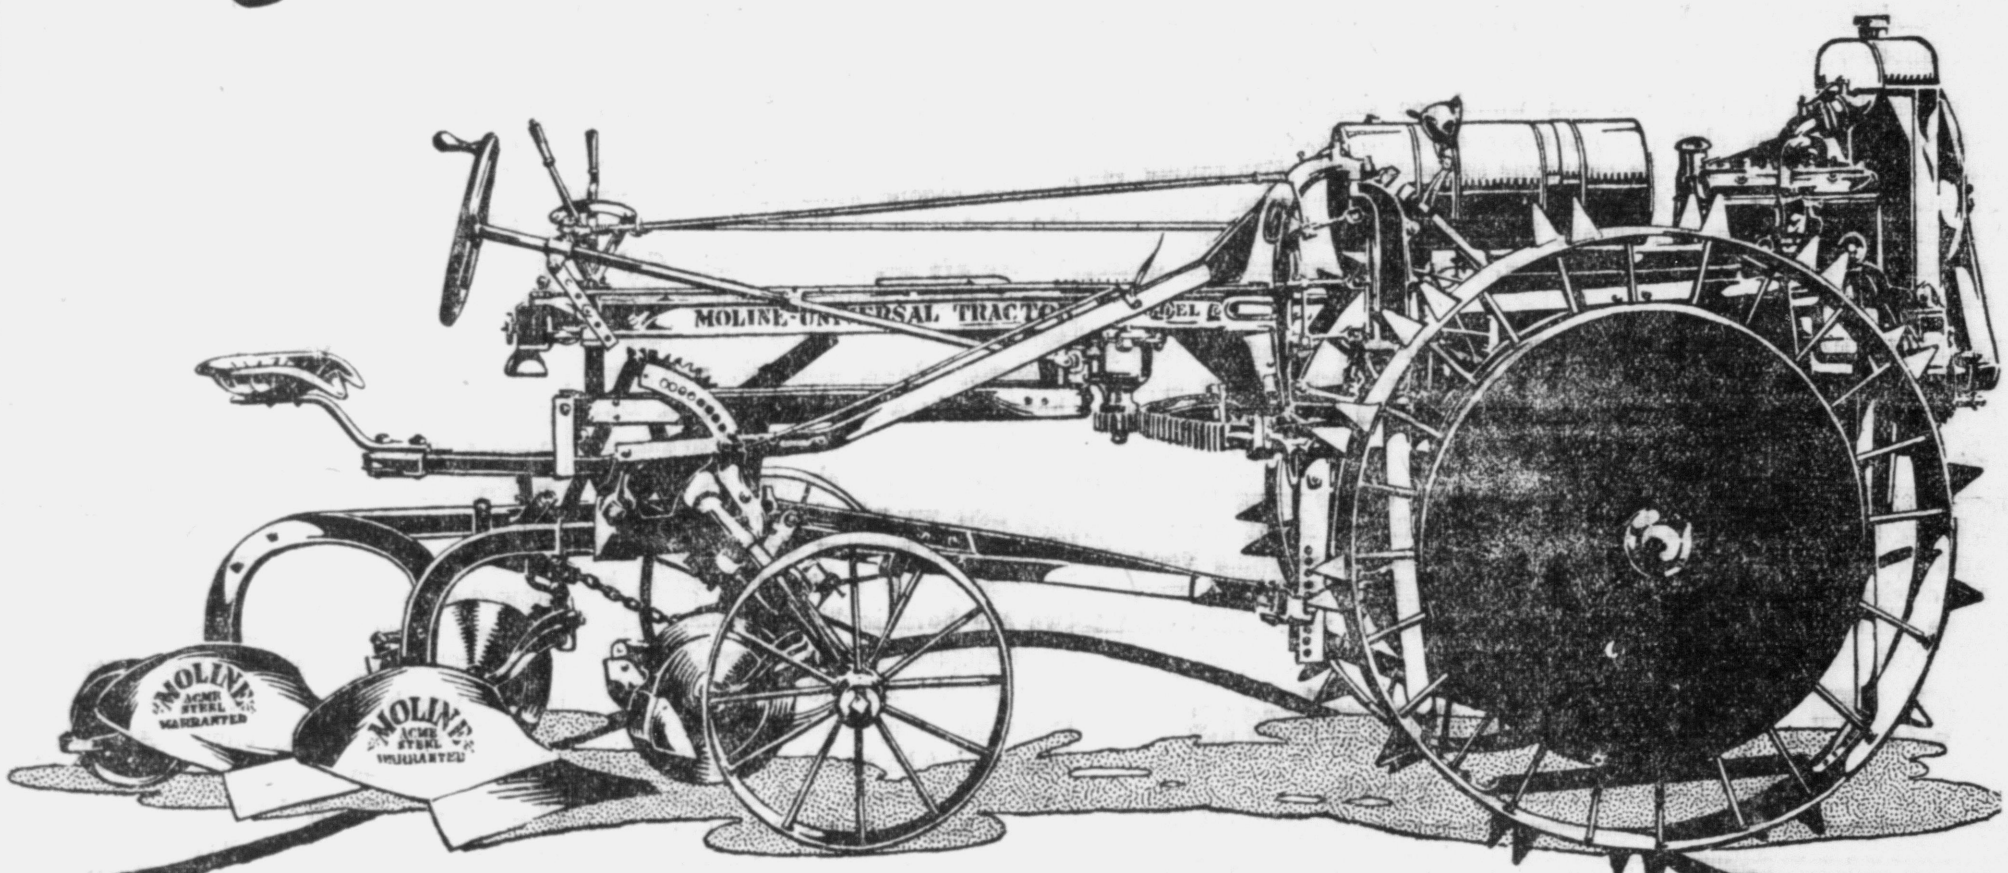

"EATONIC neutralizes the acids that form the painful gases, 'sweetens' the stomach, and gives the gastric juice a chance to do its work as it should."

"To promote appetite and aid digestion, take EATONIC—one or two after each meal. They are perfectly harmless."

INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC
IS STILL A MYSTERY

Increase of 25 Percent in the Disease in Army Camps Over The Previous Week

NOT SURE HOW IT IS SPREAD

Washington, Jan. 28.—With influenza on the increase in many States and slightly decreased in others, the United States public health service officials are still baffled by the epidemic, it was admitted yesterday. The week ended January 18 showed an increase of 25 per cent in the disease in army camp zones over the previous week and a general increase in Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, Florida, Louisiana, North Carolina, Oregon, South Carolina, Vermont, Virginia and Washington. Decrease in the number of cases reported from California, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, New Jersey, Ohio, and Oklahoma was observed.

Medical men do not know for sure whether weather conditions affect the spread of the disease. They are not sure how it is spread. As a matter of fact, the several hundred workers for the government and greater number of physicians working privately are still uncertain in many respects concerning the dangerous malady.

"We can't tell where to expect a spread of the disease, nor whether it will be severe or mild," said an official yesterday. "The reports which have come in every week from all the States show rises and falls that may or may not be the result of atmospheric or weather conditions."

SOME LINES DO NOT NOW REQUIRE LICENSE

Food Administration Announces
Withdrawal Restrictions Over
Distribution of Most Foods

NO INSPECTION OF GROCERIES

Official announcement is made today by the Indiana division of the United States food administration that all license requirements in connection with food control have been withdrawn except for the distribution of the following commodities: Wheat, corn, oats, rye, barley, wheat mill feeds, copra, palm kernel, peanuts, cottonseed and its products, oleomargarine and butter substitutes, all animal fats and oils, butter, cheese, eggs, sugar and malt.

In connection with this announcement, Dr. Harry E. Barnard, federal food administrator for Indiana, stated that except for the supervision over the distribution of the above list, the food administration has no power to penalize. This means that any offender against the food regulations, whose license may have been revoked or suspended, may resume any line of business not now requiring a license, but that the revocation or suspension remains in effect with respect to commodities or activities that still require a license. In other words, a dealer may operate in all lines of distribution except those named.

Certain criminal features of the food control act, particularly in reference to profiteering, remain in force, Dr. Barnard states, but others are automatically eliminated by

RED CROSS PRAISED BY BOY IN FRANCE

Private Guy McBride Says None
Should Regret Money Given
To This Organization

HOPES TO COME HOME SOON

A letter has just been received by Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Young from their grandson, Private Guy McBride, who is in France with the Headquarters Department Sec. S. O. S. The letter was written Dec. 30 from Neufchateau, in the Province of Vosges, France. He is well and has hopes of getting home before long. In his letter he praises the Red Cross for its wonderful work, which in part is as follows: "American Red Cross women serve the cats. There is also a large Red Cross warehouse here, where they give away handkerchiefs, wristlets, gloves, sweaters, raincoats, underwear and blankets, and I do not know what else. These warehouses and lunch stations are scattered all over France. When we first arrived over here, we got off a train and were given a cup of coffee and a sandwich for an afternoon lunch.

"They do not sell the stuff to us, they give it to us. You certainly need not regret the money you gave to the Red Cross and I know you gave your share." He states in his letter that the French people treat the Sammys as if they were Gods, giving them the best of everything.

This The Original Wide Spread Spreader

And on account of this feature and the simplicity, durability and dependability of it the makers claim to have reached the three-fifth mark of all the spreader sales made in America in 1917. The other manufacturers, seeing this have copied it until today there are several so-called wide spreaders on the market, but there is none that will beat it in any respect. Come to E. A. Lee and get the original, built by a firm which was the first to solve the spreader problem, by 18 years of successful spreader building. We have them at the right price, having placed our order at a time before the two last advances. The conditions are such that they can't be cheaper for some time. If you need a spreader—have work for one—you will find it worth more to you to use than to wait for a better price.

Your neighbors have them—Bert Eakins, Knecht & Gartin, Omer Hall, Clyde Wilson, Cleve Geise, Elmer Emsweller, George Green, Russell Harrison, Frank Wilson, Clarksburg, James Clark, Clarksburg, Russell Orme, O. L. Carr, W. A. Alexander, and others. Talk to them about their work.

PLAN SYSTEM OF IMPROVED ROADS

Advocates of Permanent Highways
Have Course Mapped out for Extending Paved Streets.

TWO PETITIONS ALREADY IN

Commissioners Appoint Viewers For Willard Tribbey Road—Petition
Calls For Cement.

Plans for extending the improved streets of Rushville city on to the Rushville township line, and for carrying them on through the townships which they will touch, thus completing a system of hard surfaced roads on the main highways of the county, are in the making and will eventually materialize, in the opinion of good roads advocates, though it will require years for the projects to be worked out.

Road building, especially when the material is of a kind that will make the improvement permanent, is a slow process because the law provides that a petition for a new road may not even be filed if there is not a surplus in the township fund. It will take years to consummate the plans of Rush county men who want to see their county come to the front in the state with an improved system of highways, but there is little doubt but that their dream will come true because very little opposition is now voiced to the expenditure of money for good roads—especially those of a permanent character. People have learned by experience that it is good business to build roads that will last.

Road men believe that the automobile coming into such general use has been responsible for the changed attitude toward road building. All automobile drivers want good roads. Those who do not own machines have seen that nothing but a road with a hard surface will stand up under the wear and tear of traffic as it is nowadays.

Petitions are already on file before the county board of commissioners to extend Main street to the Noble township line on the south and the Jackson township line on the north. The John Powers et al petition if granted, will result in a cement highway being built from the end of the paved street in North Morgan street to the Jackson township line. It is believed that there are enough good roads advocates in Jackson township to take the matter up and pave the road on through. It would then fall to the lot of Center township to take it on to the Henry county line.

Main street on the south has already been extended with a cement road running south through Circleville. The petition of John Weir and others, which is now before the commissioners, proposes that this cement highway, which was just completed last fall and opened to travel, shall be carried on to the Noble township line. Once that is done, there will be another petition to continue the improved highway on through Noble township. By that time it is expected Richland township will be ready to build it on to the Decatur county line.

Two petitions had been prepared for the extension of this highway, and it was discovered yesterday at the meeting of the commissioners that the wrong one had been filed. If it had been granted, there would have been a gap of unimproved road left. It was dismissed and the correct one filed.

The board yesterday afternoon also acted favorably on the petition of Willard Tribbey and others for a cement highway seven-eighths of a mile long, extending north from the intersection of the Carthage pike and what is known as the Brookville pike in the town of Arlington. Oran J. Meyers and R. E. Henley of Carthage, and Frank Cast, county surveyor, are the petitioners.

SENDS HOME GERMAN HELMET

Miss Hazel Bennett, who went overseas with Base Hospital No. 32, an Indiana unit, is now taking a rest in Italy, according to word received by her friends here. The last information received from her was to the effect she would have an opportunity to see Monte Carlo. Miss Bennett was on the front eight months without a rest and when the war ended, she was exhausted and had to be relieved. It is expected that she will be sent home soon.

The former Rushville girl has sent John Wyatt son of Mr. and Mrs. Warder Wyatt, a German helmet which she took off the head of a German soldier as he dropped dead at the door of the hospital where she was on duty. There is a big hole in the top of the helmet, showing where the missile which killed the German penetrated his head. The incident happened before the war ended while Miss Bennett was on duty with an evacuation hospital. She wrote some time ago, saying that she would send the helmet.

SENDS COPY OF PARIS PAPER

Captain John H. Kiplinger, former commander of the headquarters company of the 139th Field Artillery, who was transferred to the American army of occupation before the 38th division started home, is now on duty as one of three trial judge advocates of the army district for general court martial cases. Word to this effect has been received by friends here. Captain Kiplinger has promised to write a more extended letter detailing some of his experiences while with the American expeditionary force.

Captain Kiplinger has sent a copy of a Paris newspaper which depicts in graphic form some of the devastation wrought by the Huns. The paper gives a complete list of raids on Paris by the Germans during the war. According to this list, there were two hundred and seventy-one attacks from the air on the French capital during the war, the majority of them being made with bombing planes. Dirigibles were used in only twenty-six instances early in the war.

DRY FIGHT STOPS IN HOUSE

Jinnett Introduces Bill Providing Attendance Officers Shall Receive $2 a Day Regularly

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Jan. 28.—The administration bill creating a department of insurance separate from the state auditor's office, was amended in the senate today when it was brought up for second reading, to make the salary of the insurance commissioner $4,000 a year instead of $6,000 and to make it effective September 30, 1920 instead of this year.

The house passed the Kimmel bill providing for abolishing the statisticians and state geologist offices by a vote of 77 to 18.

The fight against dry beer was dropped in the houses of representatives today. Representative Frank Wright, author of the bill aimed to strengthen the prohibition law, said he would call a meeting of the public moral committee to make several changes in the bill. These changes will include withdrawal of the provision which prohibits the manufacture of drinks which have any alcohol and also withdrawal of the provision under which whiskey could be introduced as evidence in trying a person accused of violation of the prohibition law.

Bills introduced included: Southard—Pension employees of state in service twenty years or more and those over 60 years of age.

Barker—Appropriating $50,000 for prevention of tuberculosis among cattle and providing that when tuberculosis is found in a herd the state may have the cattle killed and reimburse the owner.

McKinley—Granting an eight hour day to women.

Grayson—Providing for a pension for mothers where the father is unable to work, including the pension supervision by the board of child guardians in each county.

Jinnett—Providing that school attendance officers shall receive $2.00 a day regularly and $1.00 a day additional for work outside the city or town.

The senate passed the McKinley bill providing that city officers may donate money to organizations engaged in public welfare work.

JAP CLAIM BEFORE THE WAR COUNCIL

Reported England Supports Her Retention of Islands Seized
From Germany

JAPAN MAY HELP BRITAIN

All Delegates Apparently Agreed
That Colonies Should Revert
to The Germans

(By United Press.)

Paris, Jan. 28.—Japanese claim to marshal Pacific Islands was understood to have received special attention at today's meeting of the Supreme War Council. It was reported that Great Britain supported the retention of the islands which were seized from Germany. In return for this support, it is believed that Japan may back up the claim of Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, to German colonies now held by them. All delegates were apparently agreed that colonies revert to Germany on pre-war status but the majority appeared to favor their administration by the league of nations, under a trusteeship of nations more directly interested.

Gen. Kernan and Dr. R. H. Lord, were selected as American representatives on the mission which the associated powers will send to Poland.

The Supreme War Council today was expected again to take up disposition of German colonies. The council is understood to feel that early decision on territorial question is necessary for drawing up the preliminary peace treaty, which will permit demobilization. Certain delegates are known to favor immediate settlement of several of the more pressing territorial problems, instead of waiting for these matters to be handled by the league of nations. In addition to the effect on demobilization, the delegates were influenced by the fact that certain individuals await territorial adjustment and that the situation of the affected population is serious.

Whatever action is taken it will conform with the broad principles of the league of nations. Territorial questions which may receive early consideration includes adjustment of boundary of Poland and Czechoslovakia and disposition of German colonies.

The demand by French officials regarding an alleged claim to the Saar valley has taken the form of a disposition that no claim has been presented. There has been no official enlightenment on France's position in this matter, but it was ascertained in some quarters today such French problems as will be presented at the peace conference, will provide for control of the Saar valley.

The nineteen small powers, sitting in the peace conference, at a harmonious session yesterday, gave their full support to the working organization outlined by the large powers, and selected their representatives to serve on committees, charged with consideration of many difficult problems.

This was largely due to the skillful direction of Jules Cambon, French delegate, and former ambassador at Washington, who was designated by the council of the great powers to preside over the meeting of the small powers.

For a time there was some apprehension of the sequel to the different viewpoints expressed at Saturday's conference, but the meeting of the small powers was without incident or renewal of the claims then set up for increased representation on the various committees. Belgium, Serbia, Roumania and all the other small powers had their full delegations at the meeting.

M. Cambon, in opening the session, alluded to the great part Belgium had taken in the war. He then

SUPERSTITIOUS WILL SAYS 'I TOLD YOU SO'

Basis of Dispute Between L. B. Osborne and J. R. Ward Happened on Friday, The 13th

SOW AND PIGS ARE INVOLVED

Superstitious persons will say "I told you so" when they hear the story of the troubles of Lucien B. Osborn and John R. Ward over a sow and fourteen pigs.

It seems that it was Friday, September 13 that Mr. Osborn came into possession of the aforesaid sow and pigs, which strayed into his corn field from an adjoining farm belonging to Mr. Ward. They damaged the growing corn, Mr. Osborn alleges, and he vows he will hold them until the owner pays the damages. Mr. Ward refuses and some time ago filed suit to replevin the sow and pigs. The case eventually got into the circuit court and the jury disagreed, so that the status of the dispute is just as it was in the beginning.

Mr. Osborn insists that J. P. Stech, justice of the peace, sell the sow and pigs to pay the damage he sustained in his corn. Attorneys for Mr. Ward served verbal notice on Squire Stech today not to sell them.

NEW POLITICAL CRISIS BREWING IN GERMANY

Future Status of Workman and Soldiers Council, Only Administrative Body, The Cause

MAY ABOLISH THE SOVIETS

Berlin, Jan. 28.—A new political crisis was brewing today over the future of the workmen and soldiers council in which administrative powers have centered since the beginning of the revolution. Leaders of majority socialists and democrats, a coalition of whom is expected to dominate the new German republic, were advocating a program for abolition or at least modification of the Soviets. Meanwhile the government would be run by the present cabinet and the national assembly could establish new governmental machinery.

The Spartacists are throwing what power they still possess on the side of the workmen and soldiers council.

The majority of the German people apparently are determined that the national assembly work shall be absolute and that Soviets and present cabinet alike must bow to its will. In view of this fact it is believed that the meeting at Weimar may resolve itself into the first congress of the German republic.

SAYS HE SAVES MEN SO THEY MAY SERVE

Evangelist A. P. Renn Declares God
Does Not Save Men to Keep Them Out of Hell

REVIVAL AT BAPTIST CHURCH

God Alone Can Save World, But God
Can't Save the World Alone,
Evangelist Asserts

Gad saves men to serve, not to keep them out of hell or to let them spend eternity in heaven, the Rev. A. P. Renn declared at the revival service at the First Baptist church last night. It is the Christian's duty to bear witness, he said.

The evangelistic meetings began at this church Sunday and it is reported that the interest is increasing each night. The Rev. Mr. Renn is assisted by a singing evangelist, Mr. Bockemeyer.

The evangelist used for his subject last night, "Witnessing for Christ," based on the text, the words of which formed the climax to Judah's plea for Benjamin, "For how shall I go back to my father and the lad be not with me?"

"Just as Judah was responsible for the safe return of Benjamin, we are responsible for the safe return of our friends to our heavenly father," declared the Rev. Mr. Renn. "God will hold us responsible for not being faithful in witnessing, that a lost world might be won to Him.

What does God save men for? Not simply to keep them out of hell, neither to let them spend eternity in heaven. He saves people that they might serve Him. A knife is used for cutting. A pencil is used for writing. A watch is used for telling time. Each of these have one function to perform. So with a Christian, saved for one thing, saved to serve, to witness. God alone can save the world, but God cannot save the world alone.

"A great number of people in the world want Christ but church members have been slow in taking the message to them. Do you know the world is dying for a little bit of love? Everywhere you hear them sighing for a little bit of love—for the love that rights a wrong, fills each heart with hope and song. They have waited so long for a little bit of love.

"God has done all He can to win the world back to Himself. He gave His Son, the best He had. The Son gave His life, the best He had. The Holy Spirit has done and is doing all that can be done. He is witnessing and convicting men and women and giving Christians power to witness. So if the world is lost God is not to blame. In most cases where people are lost some one has been unfaithful in witnessing.

SOCIETY OPPOSES SPANKING CHILDREN

Spare the Rod and Spoil the Child
Biblical Quotation Cannot be Found in Bible

NO DEFENSE FOR WHIPPING

Palo Alto, Cal., Jan. 28.—Don't spank the kiddies and then blame it on the Bible.

This is the warning being sent broadcast by the American Humane Education society here. The society is opposed to spanking, and points out that the alleged biblical authority so often quoted, "Spare the rod and spoil the child," cannot be found in any Bible. Instead, the maxim that has brought so many blue days to little folk originated in a poem by Samuel Butler in 1663, the Humane society says.

Says the society's letter to parents:

"Slapping, spanking or whipping children cannot be defended. They have been universal. They are now common. They are seldom discussed. Possibly shame prevents parents from talking about this important subject. It is time the practice was discussed openly.

"Children cannot defend themselves. Teachers and parents who have a high standard of conduct, should speak and write in strong terms condemning the corporal punishment of children."

FEW BILLS INTRODUCED IN PRESENT SESSION

Average Run of Measures in Two Houses During Regular Session is 500 Each

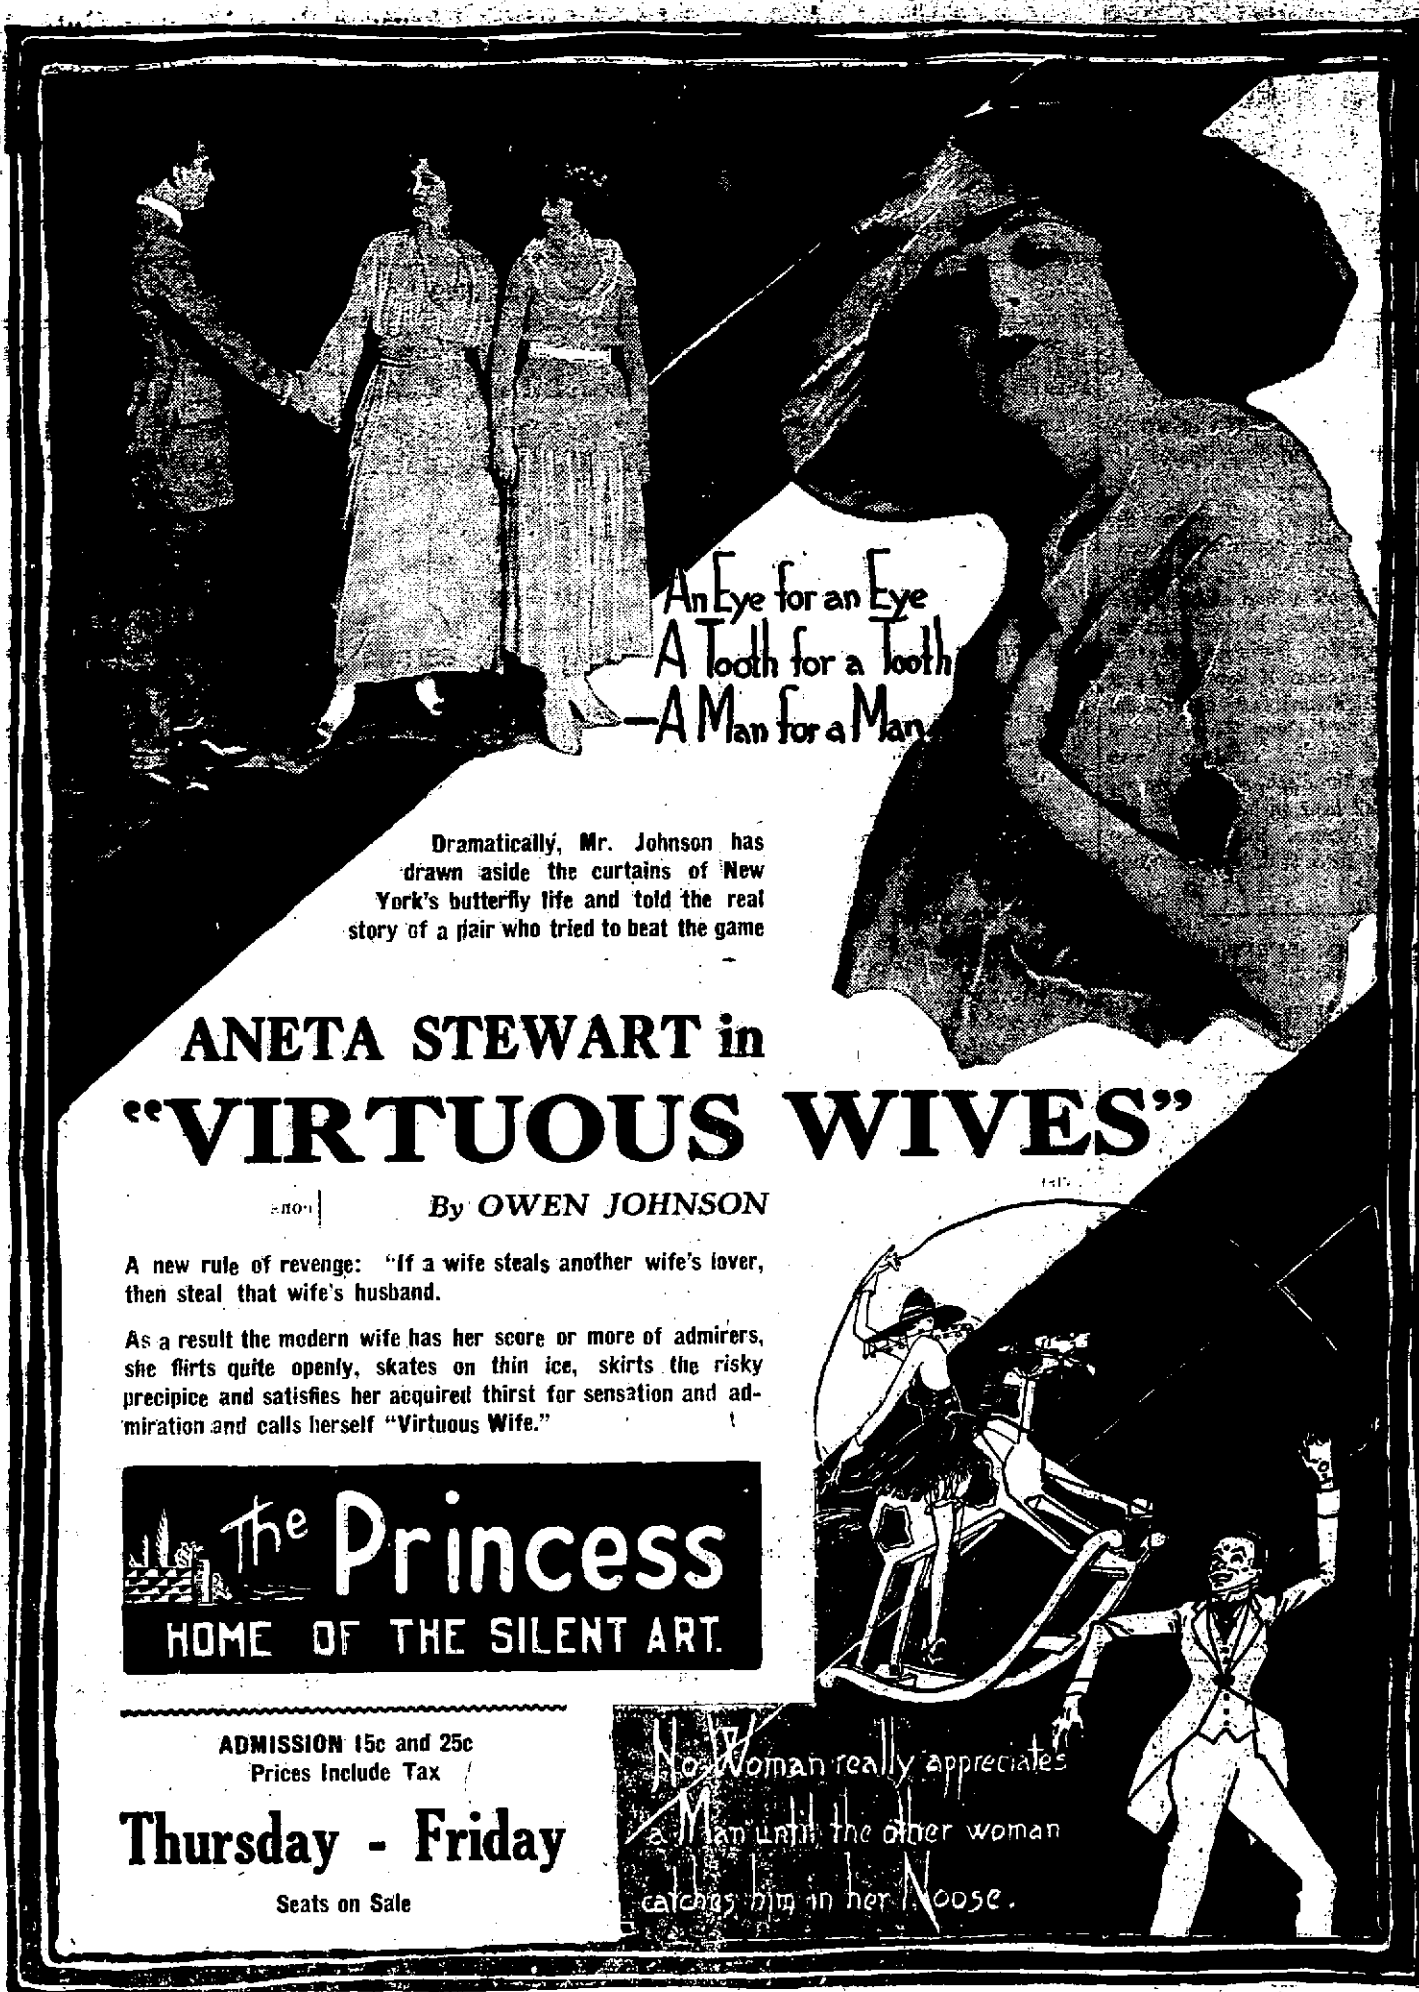

15 PERCENT BECOME LAW

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 28.—Indications are that there will probably be fewer bills introduced in the present session of the legislature than at any previous session with the exception of the special session in 1908 when there were but twenty-six bills introduced in the house and only sixteen in the senate.

The average run of bills introduced in the two houses during a regular session is about 500 each, and only twice since 1899 have there been less than 1,000 bills introduced in the two houses combined, during the sixty-one day period. Of the total number of bills introduced it is seldom that more than about 15 per cent of them become laws.

There were more bills introduced at the session of 1915 which was overwhelmingly democratic, than at any other session. The total at that session was 1,520. Three hundred and sixty of these were enacted into laws. Of the forty-two bills introduced in the session of 1908 all were enacted into laws, making the record for the percentage of bills passed at any session. It was at the special session of 1908 that the local option law was passed.

paid a tribute to the work of Serbia, Roumania, Greece and the others. This dissipated any lingering shadows of disagreement, and the meeting proceeded with entire harmony.

In the meantime the council of the great powers held two sessions during the day, resulting in the formation of two new commissions, to deal with financial subjects and the question of private and maritime laws.

The council also proceeded to hearings on the disposition of the conquered German colonies in the Pacific and the far east, a final conclusion not being reached. The conference is giving evidence of real progress since the committees were named, and most of these bodies have begun their work.

President Wilson, who is chairman of the committee of the league of nations, joined his colleague, E. M. House, also a member of that committee, during the noon recess of the council. Later in the day Lord Robert Cecil, British member of the committee, joined him in a further consideration of the questions which the President and Mr. House had examined.

The labor commission also began to get under way. President Wilson met Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor; James Duncan, John R. Alpine, and other members of the American Labor delegation, for a brief exchange of greetings and later Mr. Gompers and Edward N. Hurley, who are the American members of the labor commission, held their first conference of the work ahead.

Henry White, American delegate on the waterways commission, also established relations with his colleagues of that body.

RESTRICTIONS REMOVED

Washington, Jan. 28.—Restrictions of the manufacture of near beer have been removed. The food administration announced today it had been advised that President Wilson January 23 signed a proclamation lifting the ban. The date on which it will become effective will depend on the length of time the document is in transit from France.

PLATE GLASS BILL WILL AID MERCHANTS

Will Save Thousands of Dollars Which Are Paid to Plate Glass Insurance Companies

RATES EXTREMELY HIGH

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 28.—Senator A. H. Beardsley, of Elkhart, today stated that through the enactment of a bill which he has introduced providing for the establishment of mutual plate glass insurance companies that merchants in small towns in Indiana will be able to save many thousands of dollars annually which are now being paid out to plate glass insurance companies for protection against loss due to windows being broken.

"The plate glass insurance rates in Indiana are extremely high at present," said Senator Beardsley, "and there appears to be a great need for the organization of mutual insurance companies which may protect its members against loss from having their windows and show cases broken. The cause for the high rate on plate glass in this state has not been explained satisfactorily to many policy holders and I believe that it is only just that the legislature grant the merchants of Indiana the authority to organize mutual plate glass insurance companies if they desire to do so. Should it prove that the present rate is lower than the cost of a mutual company would be the merchants will of their own accord return to the old line companies for protection against these losses."

They denied that the strike is connected with Bolshevism. The strike situation was unchanged today. Nearly 200,000 men were out in various parts of the country.

Steel Worker Gets Amazing Relief In Severe Case of Inflammatory Rheumatism

Advices 20th Century Liniment in All Cases of Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Etc.

Read what he says:

"I am a steel worker employed by the Scranton Bolt and Nut Works. Those who know the occupation of Puddling Iron will fully realize the danger of catching cold. With me a slight cold developed into inflammatory rheumatism and for three months I could not move hand or foot. Doctors could give me no relief and for five days, before using 20th Century Liniment I neither ate nor slept. It was only after much persuasion that I allowed a friend of mine to try your liniment. Five minutes after 20th Century Liniment was applied I felt the first relief from pain in three months, and that very night I slept from 10:30 to 6:30 a. m., and awoke without pain. I was up and around, and the end of the second week was back at work. If anyone feels doubtful as to the merits of 20th Century Liniment and will write me, I will dispel any doubts they may have.—Thos. A. Caveney, 920 Capouse Ave., Scranton, Pa."

20TH CENTURY LINIMENT has brought relief to thousands of sufferers. It draws all the painful soreness and swelling from Rheumatic joints and does it so surely and speedily, it seems almost like magic. If you don't find quick relief, take the bottle back to your druggist and get your money back. What this truly wonderful liniment has done for others, it can do for you also. All druggists can supply you.—(Adv.)

NEWS OF JOBS TO SOLDIERS

A Woman's Experience With Grippe

When a cough or cold "hangs on," and you have aches and pains in your joints and muscles, it is likely that grippe is taking hold of your system. Mrs. J. A. Rodgers, Switzer, S. This sterling family remedy loosens the phlegm, stops irritation, allays soreness and inflammation and frees the air passages. Good for children. F. B. Johnson.—Adv. 8

Many British Women Will Keep War Jobs.

(By United Press.)

London, Dec. 14. (By Mail.)—Wanted: Work for 500,000 women. The number of women who will be thrown out of work by the ending of the war is not so great as is imagined. About one and a half million extra women have been employed in the United Kingdom since July, 1914 but the number of killed and disabled men amounts to about one million. Therefore there remain 500,000 women workers who will be displaced.

Their displacement will come gradually and they will not be thrown on the labor market at once, for a of the increase in women's labor consists of dilutees. Until the men come back they will remain at their jobs.

In the meantime many new spheres have sprung up for women. They will continue making tools and machinery, they will be employed in subsidiary ship-building industries, they will do their share in the chemical trades; and also, there are two quite new branches of work open to women of the United Kingdom—the manufacture of pianos and toys, both of which industries are being wrested from the hands of the Hun.

Suppressing the Bolsheviks.

It goes without saying that the American people will not sanction any recognition of the red-handed Bolshevik government in Russia nor any direct dealings with its cut-throat leaders. It is hardly conceivable that our government, any more than the French or British government has any such thing in view. Pres. Wilson who did not recognize Huerta, can hardly recognize Lenin and Trotsky.

The attempt to get all the Russian factions together for a peace confab of their own is interpreted by many observers as a clever scheme to solve the Russian problem by putting the Bolsheviks in a hole. If they can be induced to send representatives to an island in the Sea of Marmora to meet the representatives of the rest of Russia, their delegation will be so outnumbered and outvoted and outtalked that the delegates will probably return sadder and wiser. And if, as the plan contemplates, everybody will stop fighting while the convention is being held, it may be the end of militant Bolshevism. With hostilities once suspended, their fighting forces are likely to become disorganized.

The Bolshevik army has been unfortunate of late, anyhow. The Estonians have licked it. The Poles have licked it. Nearly everybody seems able to lick it. Its numbers are greatly reduced. With judicious encouragement from the Allies it might really melt away, leaving Lenin and Trotsky stranded and opening the way for the organization of a republican federation in Russia under allied protection.

"Internationalizing" Labor.

It was somewhat surprising, and not at all displeasing, to learn that the peace conference at Paris gave a session to the discussion of international labor. It appears that the conference wants to establish a commission to deal with world-labor questions. There may be an international conference, representing both labor and capital, called soon to formulate a general program. Ultimately, it is suggested, there may be a permanent labor commission responsible to the League of Nations.

There would be a broad field for such an institution. It could deal better than any existing agency with such a problem as the pay and working conditions of sailors, straightening out, for example, the inequalities now existing between American standards and those of other nations. It would not interfere, of course, in the internal affairs of any country. It could doubtless do much to promote good relations everywhere between capital and labor, disseminating useful information and bringing uniformity into industrial standards in many lands.

Young, handsome, fat, smirking Manuel really seems to think he's going to get his king job back in Portugal. But we'll bet on Portugal.

Maybe if they put brass foot-rails in the postoffices, generous citizens would treat each other to thrift stamps.

All the hard cider in Ithaca, N. Y., has been confiscated as "liquor," and the last ray of hope dies in many a temperate community.

Anyhow, if Ireland gets away with her revolution now it can't be said that Germany had anything to do with it.

The peace conference surely ought to impose an indemnity on Spain for all this influenza.

This may be a false peace. Better not demobilize the winter underwear just yet.

Then, too, a dry nation can buy more thrift stamps.

Amusements

Melodrama at Mystic

A star which has recently arisen in the film firmament shows exceptional lustre. This star is Miss Madeline Traverser who will be shown at the Mystic theatre tonight in a new William Fox photodrama called "The Danger Zone."

Miss Traverser is a tall beautiful woman and her work in "The Danger Zone" is exceedingly clever. The story is melodramatic and demands strong emotional acting to put it over with a discriminating audience. Miss Traverser has several big scenes and carries each of them with a power that holds the close interest and sympathy of her audience in a vise-like grip.

Mutt and Jeff will also be shown in "An Ace and a Joker."

A Patriotic Picture

Carrying a patriotic message to men and women citizens of the country, "Come on In," an excellent John Emerson, Anita Loss production which is the vehicle which introduces Shirley Mason and Ernest Truex to Paramount audiences, will be shown at the Princess theatre tonight. Aside from the loftiness of the theme, "Come on In" is essentially a dramatic photoplay which will hold the interest of the most blasé theatre-goer.

During the filming of the picture at Camp Dix, Mr. Truex wore the uniform of a lieutenant and wherever he went he was saluted by the troops. When he was passing a guard house, a dozen soldiers saluted and the clever little actor who had never spent an hour in a training camp, was at a loss as to know what to do. He finally found Mr. Emerson and Miss Loss.

"What shall I do?" he inquired anxiously. "I hope they don't take me for President Wilson or King George."

The little comedian was assured that they recognized in him an officer whose uniform they saluted rather than the man himself, and this explanation was perfectly satisfactory. In "Come on In" Mr. Truex plays the part of a sergeant who finally becomes a lieutenant and he aids Emmy Little, the character played by Shirley Mason, in bringing several Hun spies to book.

Hick Manhattan will be shown as an extra. Thursday and Friday Anita Stewart will be seen in "Virtuous Wives."

HEARING OF WIDE INTEREST LOCALLY

Effort to Prevent Burleson Phone Rates From Becoming Effective in State

INJUNCTION HEARING TODAY

Action on Theory Postmaster General Has No Authority to Increase State Rates

The hearing before Judge A. B. Anderson in federal court today on the petition of the state public service commission for a permanent injunction to prevent the Burleson long distance telephone rates from going into effect, is of wide interest in every section of the country. All telephone users of Rush county are concerned because the new rates, which the postmaster general ordered to go into effect a week ago today, would affect every person who talks over long distance lines, whether to a point within or without the state.

The new rates would complicate the long distance telephone business considerably. In some instances it was pointed out before the temporary restraining order was granted, long distance calls would be impossible, under the regulations as they were interpreted.

The details of the Indiana case asking for a permanent injunction restraining the telephone companies from charging the Federal department rates in the state were reviewed at a conference of the representatives of the various states by E. L. Lewis, chairman of the Indiana commission and the Indiana attorneys in Indianapolis yesterday. Experiences these states have had in obtaining temporary injunctions in state courts were also explained.

The action of the Indiana commission in fighting the new tolls is based on the theory that the resolution of congress authorizing the federal department to take over the wire systems of the company as a war measure, did not give the postmaster general the right to impose intrastate schedules in excess of the rates fixed by law in Indiana.

Charles M. Bracelet, solicitor for the Postoffice Department represented the federal department in the injunction proceedings. L. Ert Slack, district attorney, was requested to appear to assist Mr. Bracelet.

Those attending the conference yesterday were John G. Price, attorney general of Ohio; Clarence A. Davis, attorney general of Nebraska; Clifford L. Hilton, attorney general of Minnesota; James E. Markham, assistant attorney general of Minnesota; Thomas G. Bailey, deputy attorney general of Michigan; Thomas E. Dempsey, chairman of the Illinois Utilities Commission; M. B. Olbrich, deputy attorney general of Wisconsin; Fred W. Putnam, member of the Minnesota Railroad and Warehouse Commission; A. Z. Patterson, counsel for the Missouri Public Service Commission; F. S. Jackson, counsel for the Kansas Public Service Commission; Paul Haynes, Charles A. Edwards and E. I. Lewis of the Indiana commission and Attorney General Stansbury and his associates.

Before adjourning yesterday afternoon the board rescinded its action of earlier in the day in advertising for bids March 3 for the construction of the Fred McMann et al highway on the Center-Jackson township line and the Chester Cross et al highway in Center township. Both were for macadam roads. It is understood the commissioners decided not to advertise for bids until changes could be made in the specifications, which call for a bituminous binder. It is said this has not been found successful in Rush county.

HEARST'S POEM ABOUT BAY SALLY

William Hearst of the Indianapolis News has written a poem about Bay Sally, a pacer owned and raced by the late James Wilson, who was famous as a fast horse breeder and trainer here thirty years ago. Many older people of the county will recall Bay Sally, because she could do a mile in 2:18, which was fast for her time. The poem is as follows:

You don't know old Jim? Well, I'm sorry;
 You've missed a good bet, let me say,
 For Jim, with his dear old Bay Sally,
 Had Ben Hur's nags tied to a dray.
 And all of the bangers of Caesar,
 And all Pharaoh's horses as well,
 Don't start when old Jim mounts the sulky
 And waits for the tap of the bell.

Bay Sally—She's dead, lo, these seasons—
 But down in the heart of old Jim
 She still sweeps the track like a whirlwind
 And makes a great winning for him.
 There's old Copper Bottom, the sturdy;
 There's Silas and Granger, a pair
 That kept Sleepy George on his mettle
 To hold the pole safe from Jim's mare.

They met first in Boston, where Sleepy
 Beat Bay Sally out by a nose,
 Then into the west they came fighting—
 The five of them up on their toes.
 The test came at last out in Dayton,
 Bay Sally and Sleepy were tied,
 And that's where, on Memory's

OLD JIM STILL DRIVES SALLY, THIS PRIDE

They're ready! Old Jim mounts the sulky,
 The table before him's the track;
 His fingers—he plays they're the horses!
 They "check in" to start and turn back;

Turn back for a brief bit of warming
 All horses warm up at the start;
 It gives them the thrill for the going
 And fires them in body and heart.

They're off! Old Jim's fingers go flying!
 Now Sleepy is leading! the wretch!
 They're round to the half! The three-quarters!

Bay Sally moves up in the stretch!
 They're head to head! Look! A big horsefly
 Has anchored on Bay Sally's nose!

They're under the wire! She wins by a length!
 By a length of the horsefly's toes!

Life of Two Periods Flows Along

City

CAMEL LOSING POSITION

Shepherds on the Hills Still Tend
Their Flocks But This Condition Will be Changed

Jerusalem, Jan. 1. (By Mail)—
The life of two periods, distant by
many centuries, seems to flow along
the roads that lead to this ancient
city.

The camel, though he has done
great things for the British forces,
is losing his position as the main
means of transport, and the natives
driving their camels carrying huge
packs of eastern merchandise, are passed by the big engines of the evergrowing British broadgauge, railway, at which the country people
stare with openmouthed astonishment. Then along will come an Assyrion or an Arab on his donkey or mule, his wife walking behind and
carrying a great pack on her head.
On this way they transport much stuff for many miles. Now they are smothered in dust from the great
quantity of motor transport on the roads.

The five barley loaves and small
fishes still have to feed a good many
people in this country and women
may still be seen grinding their scan-ty cup of corn between stones, but
now with the introduction of good
seed the country already is showing
signs of vast improvement. Cotton
is still made up into rough material
in a primitive method on a kind of
bow. With the new opportunities
now opening up the old spinner is
likely to be looking for another job.

Already in quite small towns you
will see the name of well known London firms. This has aroused the local shops to a kind of competition and

all kinds of important signs over
small shops, with hardly anything
to sell, announce: "The London
Stores, Stationary and Other Provisions," "The Uptodate Hosiery and Dry Goods store," "The Manchester House," and many similar. It
is doubtful if five percent of the
prospective customers can read the
signs.

Shepherds on the hills still tend
their flocks, dressed in camel hair,
and nightly fold them and light their
camp fires to keep off the prowling
jackals and hyenas. But in the future much of this rich land, now
practically barren, is likely to receive the attention of the steam
tractor.

Altogether, with the present
means of transportation by rail, the
great improvement in the water supply and the rapid introduction of European methods and customs, if
may be hoped a year or two of peace
will change this country into a real
"land of milk and honey."

WHY DOUGHBODY WEPT.

(By United Press.)

Coblenz, Jan. 2. (By Mail).—There were tears in the eyes of the soldier. Such tears are rare, so when the Y. M. C. A. canteen worker, a young woman, saw the doughboy weeping her sympathy went out of him. She wondered what tragedy had broken down a strong man's natural self-control. He wasn't making a sound, just dropping silent tears. Could it be because the war had ended without his seeing his finger—

"Has your buddy—died?" timidly suggested the Y. M. C. A. worker. She had seen more than one man shed tears for his buddy who wouldn't have done it for himself.

"Naw," said the Yank, rather crossly. "He's all right. He'll be along yowling for his supper in a minute." He lifted his handkerchief to his eyes again.

"Maybe you're just plain homesick?" asked the Y. M. C. A. woman, after a moment's hesitation. She hated to leave him in such a obvious trouble.

"No I ain't," he contradicted.

"Well, if there's nothing I can do,

"There's nothing anyone can do for me, lady," he said. "I'm in trouble, all right, but I guess I'll get over it. You see, we're havin' onions for supper tonight; and I'm doing' K. P."

Monoplane Altitude Record.

Washington, January, 27.—A new record for altitude in a monoplane has been made by Major R. W. Schroeder, holder of the American altitude record. The war department received a telegram from the commandant at McCook field, Dayton, O., that Major Schroeder, with two passengers in a Loening monoplane, climbed to a height of 19,500 feet in thirty-one minutes. With him were Lieutenant George V. Eisey and K. A. Craig, a mechanic. The previous record for a machine of this type was said to be about 16,000 feet. The plane was built by Grover C. Loening, of Long Island, N. Y., and was driven by an eight-cylinder engine. It has developed a speed of 145 miles an hour.

WORD RECEIVED FROM CAPTAIN PERRY ONEAL

Now in Charge of a Company of German Prisoners Who Are Operating a Stonequarry

VISITS FRONT MANY TIMES

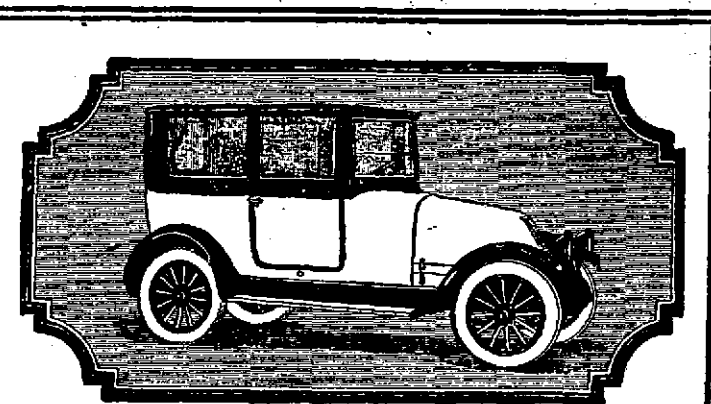

Word has just been received by Mrs. Lien Oneal from her son, Captain Perry Oneal who is now in France. Captain Oneal was at Belrupt, Verdun, at the time this letter was written. He was in charge of a company of German prisoners who were working in a stone quarry. In speaking of his work he writes in part as follows:

"When we are not so busy one of our slips off on a horse and explores the battle fields while the other runs the quarry. The other day we went over 'No Man's Land' and every foot of it was shot up, all trees had been torn down by shell fire, and we went through places where villages once stood but now there is nothing but a few rocks sticking out of the ground. We went through some forts that the Germans had been driven out of and the ground around there was nothing but a mass of shell holes. The ground was covered with implements of war, either German, American or French which had been left there.

"The city of Verdun is not in a very good condition, there is hardly a house that has not been hit by shell fire. About all there is left of some buildings is a part of a wall standing here and there."

He stated that he had always wanted to see the front and as he did not get to see it during war he was going to take a good look at it now that he had the chance. He is in good health and expects to be home in a few months.

The Red Cross Christmas Roll call had an answer that echoed around the world—from Stockholm to Valdivostok, from Buenos Aires to Cairo.

The Franklin Sedan

Everything about the Franklin Sedan is aimed to enlarge its owner's sphere of usefulness, by eliminating waste all along the line — in time, physical energy, natural resources. In other words, the sedan conforms strictly to the need of the times. It is the ideal year-round car for the American people. The lightness and flexibility of the car allow the tires to roll lightly over the road, without severe pounding. So seldom, in fact, are Franklin owners called upon to change tires that it is more the exception than the rule for spare tires to be carried, except when natural wear makes liable a replacement.

NECESSITY

Is The Mother Of Invention

The only really new principles in the spreader building in the last fifteen years were introduced by the Litchfield Mfg. Co., and are found on RUSHVILLE SPECIAL Spreaders. Everyone of them is of commanding importance.

First among these is the conveyor which can't clog or slip under a load. Look at the cut above and see the swinging sections. Any material leaking through from the load can't lodge, but drops to the ground. You can't find another one like it.

If you could look into the box you would see that the rear edge of every slat is raised just above the one preceding it, forming a traction cleat making it impossible for the conveyor to move back with taking the load with it, thus giving it a FORCE-FEED. This overcomes every objection to the endless apron and knocks into "SMITHEREENS" the arguments of the advocates of return aprons with attendant reverse gears, traps and triggers.

FIFTEEN YEARS FROM NOW after Litchfield's patents expire all other kinds of conveyors will be a thing of the past. What other spreaders will be in fifteen years from now the RUSHVILLE SPECIAL Spreader is today.

FIFTEEN YEARS FROM NOW all spreaders will be using the BULL DOG cylinder and NO CHOKE BOX—but we'll tell you about them later. Don't wait for us to tell you but come in and see the machine yourself. There are a whole lot of things about the RUSHVILLE SPECIAL Spreader, that we cannot explain in print—we have to show you. IT'S GUARANTEED FOR FIVE YEARS!

SHALL SEE CHRIST IN ALL HIS GLORY

Children of God Shall be Greeted by
Wondrous Vision, Dr. J. S.

REVIVAL SERVICES CONTINUE

Short Prayer Service Will be Held
This Evening at 7 Preceding
Regular Meeting

Dr. J. S. Hill of Richmond, who is conducting evangelistic services at the First United Presbyterian church, spoke last night from the text, "Beloved now we are the sons of God, and it does not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when He shall appear, we shall be like Him, and we shall see Him as He is." The text was taken from First John 3:1 and two.

A prayer service at seven o'clock in the Sabbath school room immediately preceding the regular meeting, was announced for tonight. In the sermon last night Dr. Hill spoke in part as follows:

"Mr. Moody said one time that he would not preach on the text, John 3:16, because the text was so grand and so great in its meaning, that he would only mar it by trying to preach about it. The same might be said of this text. Nevertheless there are so many things that are comforting and assuring on the outer edge of its meaning, that we may take them and study them with profit. In this text the apostle opens up a field for reverent thought. It is an irrepressible glad cry from the heart of the beloved disciple. It is full of cheer and comfort to his friends and followers in all the churches. Three things are presented in the text. First what we are, second what we shall be, and third what we shall see.

"We are the sons of God. God is our Father. This passage of Scripture does not carry out the idea of evolution. John, evidently would not have made a good disciple of Darwin or Huxley. John makes the declaration in the chapter of his gospel that we who believe in Jesus Christ are born of God—not simply created by His Almighty hand, but we are born in His likeness. There is something of the divine in us. Jesus taught his disciples to pray, 'Say ye, Our Father which art in heaven.' The world may pass away, and the heavens roll together as a scroll, but as God's children we shall be kept in the midst of the wreck of worlds.

"John says it doth not yet appear what we shall be, but that we shall be. Without intending to do so John teaches the immortality of the soul. If we are sons of God we must be immortal. God hath immortality in Himself.

"The stars shine over the earth, The stars shine over the sea, The stars look up to the mighty God, The stars look down upon me. The stars shall shine for a million years, For a million years and a day. But God and I shall live and love, When the stars have passed away."

"John says that we shall see Christ. Not as Moses saw Him, not in the garments of a peasant, but we shall see Him in all His glory. We shall see Him as He is. A wondrous vision awaits the children of God, in

Musterole Works Easier, Quicker
and Without the Blister

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole.

Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of out-of-date mustard plasters, and will not blister.

Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

DARTING, PIERCING SCIATIC PAINS

Give way before the penetrating effects of Sloan's Liniment

So do those rheumatic twinges and the loin-aches of lumbago, the nerve-inflammation of neuritis, the wry neck, the joint wrench, the ligament sprain, the muscle strain, and the throbbing bruise.

The ease of applying, the quickness of relief, the positive results, the cleanliness, and the economy of Sloan's Liniment make it universally preferred.

the day when God shall receive His people home. We will want millions of years to study that wonderful face, and to see the Saviour of men. Here, we think that when we reach the other side we will look for our friends first of all. But John tells us that we shall see Jesus Christ as He is. Humanly speaking it will take us ages and ages to see Him and know Him as He is. Christ said to His disciples, 'In My Father's house are many mansions.' 'Eye hath not seen nor ear heard neither has entered into the heart of man the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him.' To accept Christ is to come into the Father's house. To become a Christian is to return home. When the prodigal son was in the far country he said, I will arise and go to my father. And he arose and went. And when he was yet a great way off the father saw him, and ran to meet him. There was great rejoicing that night in the father's home. Let us come home tonight."

FRENCH GIRLS' THANKS IS FROM THEIR HEARTS

(By United Press.)

Paris, Dec. 16. (By Mail.)—A big Y. M. C. A. truck was floundering through the mud of a country road in France. Heavily loaded with wood, the vehicle was barely able to navigate through the morass but it slowed down still more to avoid hitting some cattle grazing beside the way. Three little girls, whose average age probably was 12 years, were tending the few bony cows. As the truck lumbered past, one of the girls handed the Red Triangle secretary a small package. The Y. M. C. A. man and the 3 soldiers of the wood detail waved adieu to their small friends and went on.

Opening the package, the secretary found some nuts and a letter (the whole evidently carefully prepared to be given to the first Americans the children encountered. Here is a translation of the letter.

"Dear American Soldiers: By this letter we wish to thank you for the patriotism you have shown in coming to defend the soil of France, and leaving your wives, your children, and your parents. It is thanks to you soldiers of America that France is not boche. We thank you greatly dear soldiers of America; the children of France will not forget you.

"YOND, NAIT, HENRIETTE".
Next day, Leon L. Rice, the Y. M. C. A. worker who had received the packet, went back over the same road, hoping to find the girls and tell them how much he appreciated their sentiment and the nuts. But he never has been able to get a trace of them. They evidently had no particular recipient in mind when they wrote the touching little letter, but simply took this means of thanking any Americans in uniform they might meet."

CHANGES MADE AT TWO

Walter Pearce Goes to Innis-Pearce
Company and Roy Waggener to The Park

C. W. TALGES HAS RETIRED

Several changes have been made in the management of the Park and Innis-Pearce furniture companies, to take effect the first of next month.

Walter Pearce, who has been managing the Park, will become manager of the Innis-Pearce factory, and will be associated with Manly Pearce, who for the last few years has been a resident of Los Angeles, California, but still retained his interests here. C. W. Talges, who came here several months ago to take charge of the Innis-Pearce factory when Manly Pearce bought out R. L. Innis' interest, severed his connections with the company a week ago today. Roy Waggener, who has been running Case's planing mill, will take Mr. Pearce's place at the Park factory, though he will still be identified with the planing mill. Charles Sherman, who was recently discharged from the service, has been re-employed at the mill.

Manly Pearce will remain here for the present, at least until a number of repairs are made at the Innis-Pearce factory. Among other things a new boiler is to be installed and two new trucks started at the factory.

TO TAKE WILSON'S POWER

Cummins Bill Would Have Government Run Roads 21 Months

(By United Press.)
Washington, Jan. 28.—Senator Cummins, Iowa, Monday introduced a bill to take away President Wilson's power to turn the railroads back to their private owners at any time he seen fit.

The measure provides that government control shall last for twenty-one months after peace is proclaimed unless congress directs otherwise. In the railroad control law the president was made the judge of the length of time the government should retain the roads with provision the period should not exceed twenty-one months after the end of the war.

GRAND JURY PROBE STARTS

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 28.—The federal grand jury Monday began an extensive investigation of reported federal law violations in the state. United States District Attorney L. Ert Slack declared that he would present about 500 cases to the jury. Liquor law violations form the bulk of the cases. Lake county will furnish a large number of the defendants. Indianapolis, Terre Haute, Muncie and Ft. Wayne will also have a large quota.

GOODBY, WOMEN'S TROUBLES

The tortures and discomforts of weak, lame and aching back, swollen feet and limbs, weakness, dizziness, nausea, as a rule have their origin in kidney trouble, not "female complaints." These general symptoms of kidney and bladder disease are well known—so is the remedy.

Next time you feel a twinge of pain in the back or are troubled with headache, indigestion, insomnia, irritation in the bladder or pain in the joints and lower abdomen, you will find quick and sure relief in GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. This old and tried remedy for kidney trouble and allied derangements has stood the test for hundreds of years. It does the work. Pains and troubles vanish and new life and health will come as you continue their use. When completely restored to your usual vigor, continue taking a capsule or two each day.

GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are imported from the laboratories at Haarlem, Holland. Do not accept a substitute. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

DAN CUPID TO SUFFER
IF BILLS BECOME LAW

Sentiment in Legislature Preventing Hasty Marriages Being Worked up Among Legislators.

MARRIAGE SUNDAY MARCH 2.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 28.—Dan Cupid will suffer many hard knocks if all the bills proposed to limit his activities are enacted into laws by the present session of the legislature. Sentiment in favor of legislation preventing hasty marriages is being worked up among the legislators.

One measure would force a five day waiting period between the time the license is procured and when the ceremony is performed. This would wipe out the marriage mills at Crown Point and Jeffersonville where couples from many states now rush to be married.

The Gary Social Welfare association has started a campaign to have March 2 observed throughout the state as "Marriage Sunday", all preachers taking the subject of hasty marriages as the theme for their sermons.

Another bill which is before the house would prohibit divorced persons from re-marrying within two years after the divorce is granted.

The Indiana Civic league is conducting a campaign to have the legislature pass a eugenic bill which would provide for every person who intends to be married, undergoing a physical examination before the license can be granted.

Another bill proposed but not introduced would force ten days publicity of the fact that a couple wished to be married before a license is granted.

YOU CAN NOW EAT
YOUR FAVORITE FOOD
WITHOUT ANY FEAR

Kramer Says: Eatonic Rids Weak
Stomachs of Acids, Gas, Heartburn, Pain and All Distress

What miserable feelings are caused by an upset stomach! That dull, heavy, "bloated" sensation that follows a full meal, robs good living of half its pleasures. Is there any way out for you martyrs to stomach weakness? Yes! H. L. Kramer, the man who originated Eatonic, has found a sure, quick relief for indigestion, dyspepsia, "sour stomach," heartburn, formation of painful gases, "bloating," etc., etc.

He calls this great stomach relief EATONIC, and it certainly is making a wonderful record. Countless thousands of people who formerly approached their meals with dread, now eat their fill of their favorite foods without fear of the after-effects.

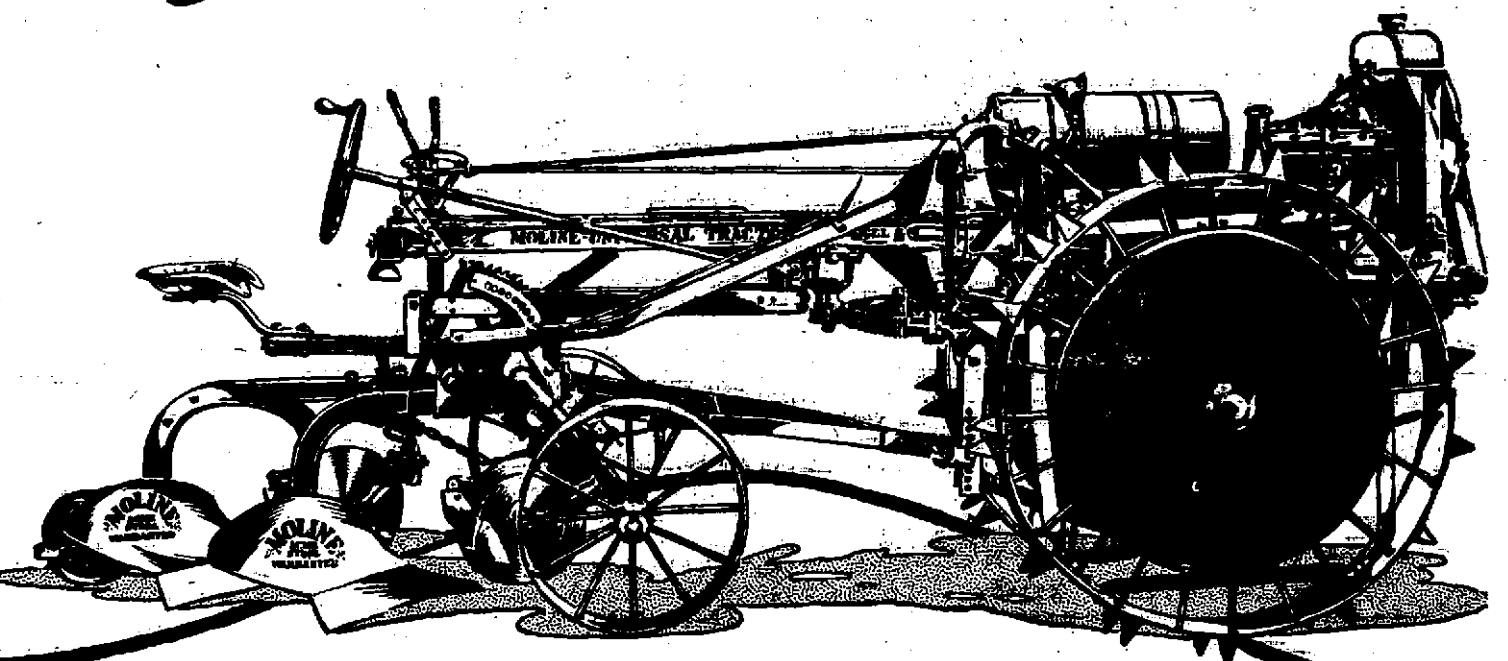

Mr. Kramer says: "My EATONIC tablets are the scientific solution of the age-old problem of indigestion and all forms of stomach misery."

"EATONIC neutralizes the acids that form the painful gases, 'sweetens' the stomach, and gives the gastric juice a chance to do its work as it should."

"To promote appetite and aid digestion, take EATONIC—one or two after each meal. They are perfectly harmless."

"For distress after eating; sour, 'gassy,' acid stomach; vertigo, nausea and belching, and that wretched, puffed-up, 'lumpy' feeling, after over-eating; there is nothing to compare with EATONIC tablets. So don't suffer another day when you can be relieved so quickly."

All druggists sell and recommend EATONIC; guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money cheerfully refunded. Ask your druggist for EATONIC or send to Eatonic Remedy Co., Chicago, Ill.

Pain-Weary People Can Find Relief

There are pain-ridden people everywhere who continue to suffer because they hardly know how to obtain relief. Pain in back and hips, nervousness, weakness, poor sleep, disordered stomach, weary headaches, constipation, all result from weak, sluggish kidneys, and irregular bladder action. Foley Kidney Pills help from the very first doses. Keep on with them, and rid your system of the poisons that cause your pain and misery. Foley Kidney Pills will restore your kidneys to healthy action and give you back your health and strength. F. B. Johnson.—Adv.

INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC IS STILL A MYSTERY

Increase of 25 Percent in the Disease in Army Camps Over The Previous Week

NOT SURE HOW IT IS SPREAD

Washington, Jan. 28.—With influenza on the increase in many States and slightly decreased in others, the United States public health service officials are still baffled by the epidemic, it was admitted yesterday. The week ended January 18 showed an increase of 25 per cent in the disease in army camp zones over the previous week and a general increase in Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, Florida, Louisiana, North Carolina, Oregon, South Carolina, Vermont, Virginia and Washington. Decrease in the number of cases reported from California, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, New Jersey, Ohio, and Oklahoma was observed. Medical men do not know for sure whether weather conditions affect the spread of the disease. They are not sure how it is spread. As a matter of fact, the several hundred workers for the government and greater number of physicians working privately are still uncertain in many respects concerning the dangerous malady.

"We can't tell where to expect a spread of the disease, nor whether it will be severe or mild," said an official yesterday. "The reports which have come in every week from all the States show rises and falls that may or may not be the result of atmospheric or weather conditions."

SOME LINES DO NOT NOW REQUIRE LICENSE

Food Administration Announces
Withdrawal Restrictions Over
Distribution of Most Foods

NO INSPECTION OF GROCERIES

Official announcement is made today by the Indiana division of the United States food administration that all license requirements in connection with food control have been withdrawn except for the distribution of the following commodities: Wheat, corn, oats, rye, barley, wheat mill feeds, copra, palm kernel, peanuts, cottonseed and its products, oleomargarine and butter substitutes, all animal fats and oils, butter, cheese, eggs, sugar and milk.

In connection with this announcement, Dr. Harry E. Barnard, federal food administrator for Indiana, stated that except for the supervision over the distribution of the above list, the food administration has no power to penalize. This means that any offender against the food regulations, whose license may have been revoked or suspended, may resume any line of business not now requiring a license, but that the revocation or suspension remains in effect with respect to commodities or activities that still require a license. In other words, a dealer may operate in all lines of distribution except those named.

Certain criminal features of the food control act, particularly in reference to profiteering, remain in force, Dr. Barnard states, but others are automatically eliminated by the list of license commodities.

The list of license commodities handled by retail grocers is now so small, Dr. Barnard says, that there will be no further inspection of groceries by the food administration, the removal of the requirement.

RED CROSS PRAISED BY BOY IN FRANCE

Private Guy McBride Says None
Should Regret Money Given
To This Organization

HOPES TO COME HOME SOON

A letter has just been received by Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Young from their grandson, Private Guy McBride, who is in France with the Headquarters Department Sec. S. O. S. The letter was written Dec. 30 from Neufchateau, in the Province of Vosges, France. He is well and has hopes of getting home before long. In his letter he praises the Red Cross for its wonderful work, which in part is as follows: "American Red Cross women serve the cats. There is also a large Red Cross warehouse here, where they give away handkerchiefs, wristlets, gloves, sweaters, raincoats, underwear and blankets, and I do not know what else. These warehouses and lunch stations are scattered all over France. When we first arrived over here, we got off a train and were given a cup of coffee and a sandwich for an afternoon lunch."

"They do not sell the stuff to us, they give it to us. You certainly need not regret the money you gave to the Red Cross and I know you gave your share." He states in his letter that the French people treat the Sammies as if they were Gods, giving them the best of everything.

This The Original Wide Spread Spreader

And on account of this feature and the simplicity, durability and dependability of it the makers claim to have reached the three-fifth mark of all the spreader sales made in America in 1917. The other manufacturers, seeing this have copied it until today there are several so-called wide spreaders on the market, but there is none that will beat it in any respect. Come to E. A. Lee and get the original, built by a firm which was the first to solve the spreader problem, by 18 years of successful spreader building. We have them at the right price, having placed our order at a time before the two last advances. The conditions are such that they can't be cheaper for some time. If you need a spreader—have work for one—you will find it worth more to you to use than to wait for a better price.

Your neighbors have them—Bert Eakins, Knecht & Gartin, Omer Hall, Clyde Wilson, Cleve Geise, Elmer Emsweller, George Green, Russell Harrison, Frank Wilson, Clarksburg, James Clark, Clarksburg, Russell Orme, O. L. Carr, W. A. Alexander, and others. Talk to them about their work.
